

ZONING BOARD HIT FOR FIRE COMPANY RULING

Judge Says Group Fell Short of Duty in Not Suggesting Alternate Plan

By FRED C. SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

A Montgomery county judge said yesterday that Pottstown's zoning board of adjustment had fallen short of its duty in the way it had rejected North End Fire company's request to build a fire house at Evans and Prospect streets.

In hearing the fire company's appeal from the board's 2-1 decision of May, 1951, Judge E. Arnold Forrest said the board should have suggested some alternative plan that the fire company could have followed to establish itself.

The judge himself suggested one alternative—that the fire company agree not to seek a liquor license for any fire house it may erect. He emphasized this was only a suggestion.

Judge Forrest said: "I'm surprised at the protests (of nearby residents) myself, except in that there may be a fear that a liquor license would be granted."

Cassin W. Craig and Morris Gerber, Norristown attorneys for the objecting property owners, made no direct comment on the judge's suggestion.

(IN THEORY, the appeal argument was between the fire company and the borough. Actually, Craig and Gerber, as "intervenor," did most of the arguing against the fire company. C. Edmund Wells, borough solicitor, took a "semi-judicial" position.)

John B. Hartenstein Jr., president of the fire company, said:

Formation of Joint Board Comes Close

Formation of an Upper Perkiomen Joint School board moved closer yesterday afternoon as three attorneys and Montgomery County Superintendent of Schools A. M. Kulp met in the latter's Norristown office to discuss problems facing some of the seven boards considering participation in the jointure.

The results of the meeting, which C. Edmund Wells, Pennsburg school board solicitor, said last night he was not in a position to disclose, will be revealed "as soon as possible" to directors of the Pennsburg board and others concerned.

The seven boards are Pennsburg, East Greenville, Red Hill, Upper Hanover, Green Lane, Marlborough and Summerville.

Wells said, however, that he, Wallace M. Keeley, solicitor for Red Hill and East Greenville; Jules Pearlstone, who represented Green Lane and Marlborough; and Kulp, "explored the desires of the

Humid Weather Blankets Town

"It's not the heat, it's the humidity," was Pottstown's favorite cliché yesterday.

Men whose starched, white collars wilted from the damp, sticky air ran their fingers around the inside to breathe easier.

The threatening skies which looked as if they might have blizzkrieged the area with a sudden downpour caused Pottstonians to venture forth from their homes loaded down with umbrellas and raincoats.

The temperature climbed rapidly in the late afternoon, reaching a high of 74 degrees at 6 o'clock, but then it fell just as rapidly for the rest of the evening and the early morning hours.

A little warmer air is expected to envelop the Pottstown area today but the promise of fair skies might put an end to the unpleasant humid weather.

THE WEATHER

For Eastern Pennsylvania: Fair and a bit warmer today and tomorrow but showers are likely in the west and north portions by tomorrow evening.

Poor Pottstown Councilmen Just Don't Rate!

Pottstown borough councilmen have been miffed for quite awhile. They feel in this big bicentennial year, nobody has been paying any attention to them.

Who are we? they asked.

A bunch of nobodies?

J. Wayne Knause, a council leader, voiced this widespread feeling at a meeting the past May 12 when he thanked the American Legion for inviting council to join the Memorial Day parade.

Knause said pointedly that it was "the only recognition given councilmen by any Pottstown group during this Bicentennial year."

He said bicentennial events were being run by a small group that just ignored the borough's ruling body.

He asked, in effect: What are we here—a bunch of nobodies?

THINGS GREW worse yesterday when councilmen got confirmation of their fears.

They got a broad implication that nobody even knows them.

The implication was in a letter sent councilmen by a bicentennial leader, inviting them to attend the national meet of the Antique Automobile Club of America and to occupy places in the reviewing stand for the High street parade June 14.

The auto parade invitation might have smoothed feathers instead of ruffling them even more, if it hadn't been for a closing line of the letter of invitation. It said:

"Please use this letter as an introduction in case the man in charge does not know you."

200 Antique Autos Expected in Parade

The largest Spring meet in the history of the Antique Automobile Club of America is expected to highlight the Pottstown bicentennial parade on June 14, it was announced last night.

One hundred thirty-five cars already have been entered in the parade and registrations still are coming in. At least 200 cars are expected to be in the line of march.

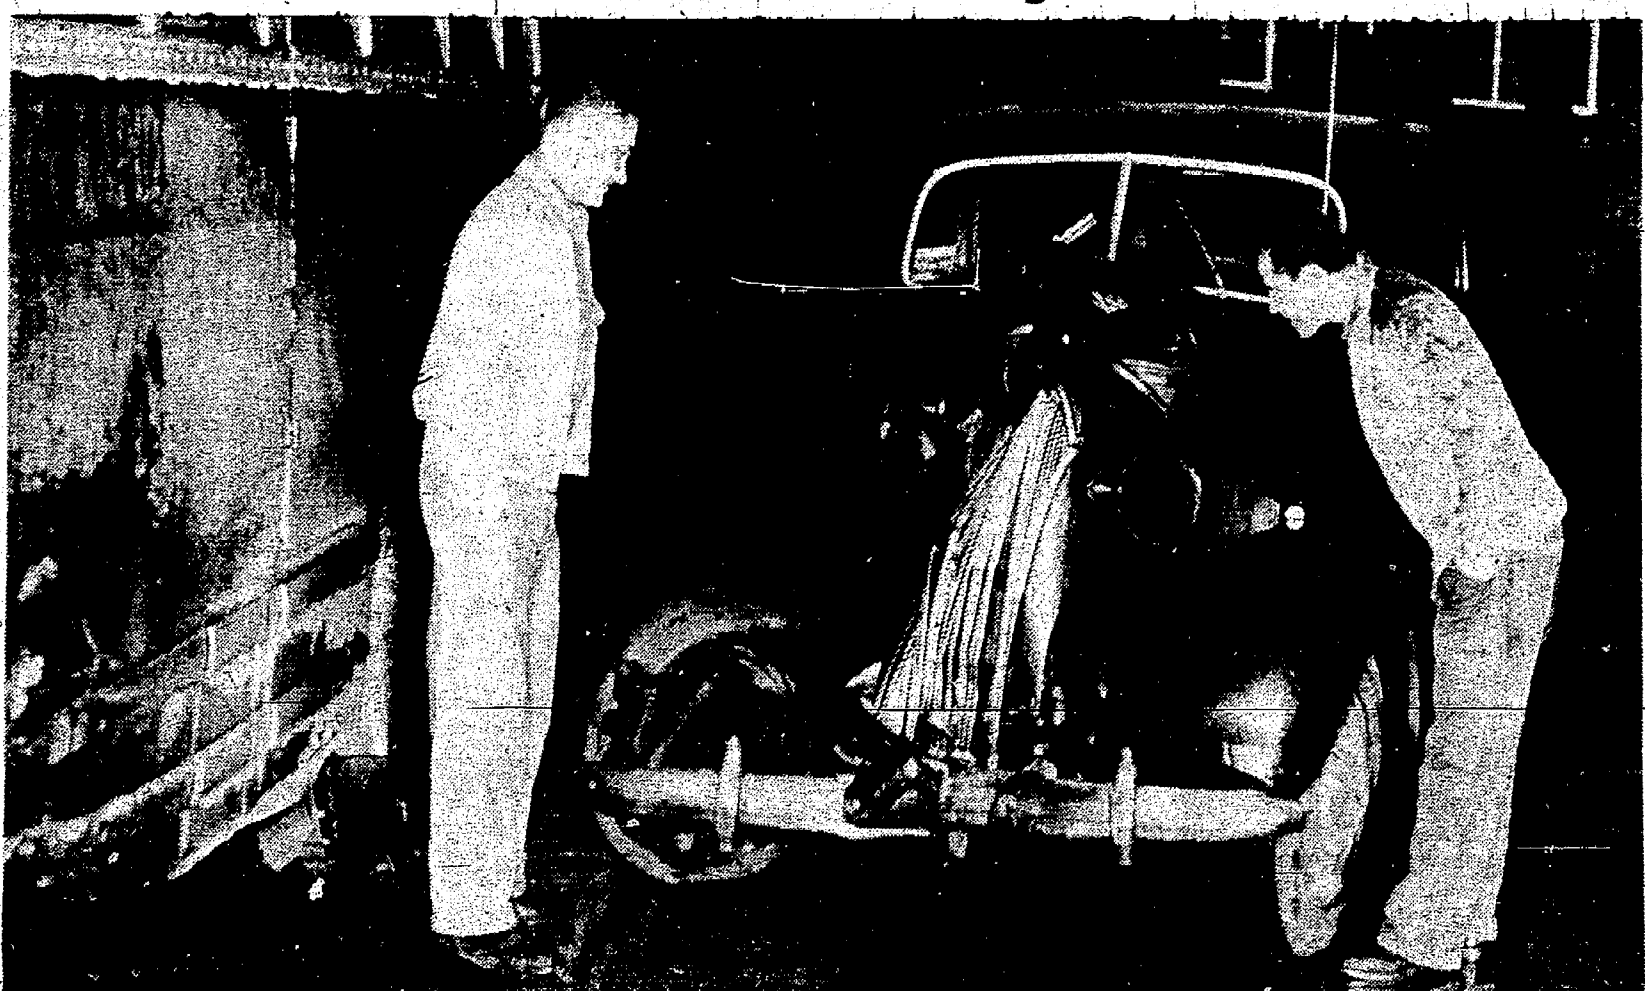

In addition, there will be 20 or 25 antique fire engines and 50 sports cars wheeling by.

Gen. Jacob L. Devers, U. S. Army retired, an antique and sports car enthusiast, will serve as honorary marshal for the event. He is associated with the Fairchild Engine and Airplane corporation, but previously served as managing director of the AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety.

A feature of the parade will be a 1907 Chadwick, the only car ever produced in Pottstown, which will be entered by William Pollock, 443 Highland road. The Chadwick will be one of four cars entered by Pollock and is expected to provide competition to the 1904 Oldsmobile owned by Herbert Singe, Hillside, N. J., which won first prize at the meet in 1951 for the excellence of its restoration.

He Wasn't Kidding

When the driver of this bus signaled for a left turn, he meant it. Two passersby, Fred Paprocki (left) and Gerald Spaar, check damage to the car of a Firestone worker that passed the bus at High street and Moser road yesterday morning at 7:05 o'clock. The car driver,

Charles J. Smith, Reading RD 1, said he didn't think the signal meant the bus was turning immediately. The bus was turning into the Pottstown Rapid transit company terminal. Smith was injured slightly.

Firestone Man Is Injured in Bus-Car Crash

A man going to work at Firestone Tire and Rubber company's Pottstown plant was injured slightly yesterday morning at 7:05 o'clock when his car collided with a bus at High street and Moser road.

Charles J. Smith, Reading RD 1, declined the offer of Motor Patrolman Robert Scheidt and Patrolman Joseph Thees to be taken to a doctor. But after reporting at the Firestone plant, he was sent from there to Memorial hospital.

Smith was treated at the hospital for bruises of the head and chest and brush burns of both knees. He also was X-rayed.

The Firestone worker said he had seen the bus's signal for a left-hand turn but didn't think the bus was going to turn for awhile, so he started to pass it.

THE ENTIRE front and right side of his car was damaged.

Gambling Tax Is Imposed on 'Lottery' Clubs

The Internal Revenue bureau has sounded the death knell for merchandise clubs in the Pottstown area, a borough clothing merchant confirmed yesterday.

The past week the bureau defined such clubs as lotteries, and said all businessmen who operate them must pay the new gambling taxes after July 1.

That means a $50 occupational stamp annually in addition to paying the Government 10 percent of the gross receipts of the club.

"Unless the clubs operate undercover, this will definitely put them out of business," said the former operator. "The tax will make such clubs exceedingly unprofitable for the store owner."

THE CLUBS, sponsored mainly by clothing merchants, have operated as follows:

A group of customers—preferably 100 or more—agree to pay a dollar a week for a certain period, perhaps 30 weeks. A drawing is held each week, and the winner gets

Local Knights Templar March

Fifteen Pottstown members of Nativity Commandery 71, Knights Templar, last night joined a twisting trail of white plumes in the Pennsylvania Grand Commandery parade, Philadelphia.

Pottstonians marched in the Third division of the 3000-man parade. The red-coated Pottstown band played for the six commanderies of the division.

Marching with the grand officers was George A. Hunsberger, eminent grand standard bearer.

All paraders, excepting division bands, wore black uniforms and white plumes of templar full-dress attire. There were the gold and silver battalions, the gold representing past officers.

THE SWAYING line of plumes took one hour to pass the reviewing stand in front of the Union League building, along Broad street.

Paraders began their 90-minute march at 20th street and Park

World of Fog Is Cleared for Bally Farmer

With a polarized lens protecting the cornea transplant in his right eye from strong light, Edgar Moyer, of Bally, makes adjustments to his corn planter, an implement he has been using for the first time in a year this Spring because his eyesight has been restored partially. From December, 1950, to December, 1951, Moyer lived in a world of fog because the corneas of his eyes were misshapen and had white spots on them. The transplant was made by a world-famed ophthalmologist in New York City the past Nov. 15. His vision still is cloudy, but is expected to clear up.

BUILDERS GROUP TO PRESENT OWN LAW ON STREETS

Session Set for Monday To Find New Plan for One Vetoed in Council

Pottstown builders will present their own street ordinance to council next week.

They will meet Monday night to frame a law which they hope council will substitute for an ordinance vetoed by Burgess William A. Griffith.

At a meeting of the Builder Industries Exchange, Pottstown and vicinity, last night, the Monday session was announced.

Builders claimed the vetoed ordinance was impracticable. Burgess Griffith said at the meeting he felt the law would work a hardship on the small builder or individual home builder.

The ordinance was designed to provide for streets in all new developments.

Under the law streets would be provided by the builders.

BUILDERS SAID they are not opposed to building entirely new streets, but opposed to rebuilding or paving streets which border a development.

Builders will revise the ordinance prepared for council. They will recommend their version of the ordinance be passed.

Burgess Griffith said at the Board to Ask Clarification Of Charges

A clarification of the charges of cruelty against Mrs. Mary H. Trethewey, Colebrookdale school teacher, will be requested by the Douglass township, Berks county, school board to enable it to prefer charges against her, Board Solicitor Ralph C. Body, Boyertown attorney, announced last night.

Body said the board requested him to ask Louis Sager, Pottstown attorney representing the township parents, to prepare a specific complaint by each parent alleging the date, time and place of each incident.

The complaints must be sworn to by the parents as the truth, and not to the best of their knowledge and belief, Body explained. This is to make it possible for Mrs. Trethewey to defend herself against the charges.

Under the teacher tenure law, Body pointed out, it is required that specific charges be filed with the board. The board, in turn, charges the teacher on the information contained in the charges it receives.

"THE BOARD is very anxious to have this, and have it as soon as possible," Body said.

Road Problem Solution Seen In Equalization

By ROBERT E. HOYER
(Mercury Staff Writer)

A. Emery Lord, chairman of council-school board's tax equalization committee, last night called equalization a key to new roads in the borough.

He pointed out that with reassessment under a modern program the value of real estate in the borough would be boosted, which would raise the borough's borrowing capacity and thus help provide for new streets without a public referendum.

Lord read three bids for reassessment submitted to the borough for consideration.

The University of Pennsylvania reported it would provide a formula and information necessary to initiate a reassessment program for $7500. This bid, however, does not include any work involved in the reassessment.

Gannett, Fleming, Corddry and Carpenter, of Harrisburg, did not submit a bid, but explained their procedure in reassessments which include a land value map, plot plan map and a house-to-house survey of properties.

ALBRIGHT AND Friel, of Philadelphia, reported they will submit a proposal after the borough decides what it wants.

J. M. Clemenshaw, of Cleveland, quoted a price of $28,000 to $30,000 to do a complete reassessment job.

The job would include a house-to-house appraisal of property, the filing of cards on all property, a reasonable re-evaluation of properties at intervals in order to keep the program up to date, training of personnel locally to carry out the desires of reassessment and insurance against court claims on reassessment.

Cole, Laver, Trumble company of Clayton, O., submitted a bid of $25,000 to $35,000 for a similar service.

The committee voted to invite representatives of the two last firms to a June 6 meeting to explain their experience in reassessment.

Lord pointed out both com-

Amusement Tax At L. Pottsgrove Is Constitutional

The 10 percent amusement tax adopted by the Lower Pottsgrove township school board is entirely constitutional and test cases in other jurisdictions have found amusement taxes valid, Desmond J. McTighe, Norristown attorney, said last night.

McTighe represented Raymond C. Hartenstein and Harry W. Buchert, co-partners in Sunnybrook ballroom, and Walter J. Wolf, owner of Ringing Rocks park, in protesting the tax measure. A letter from him was read at the board meeting on May 5 at which the tax was adopted.

Although a 30-day period is available for aggrieved persons to appeal the tax resolution, McTighe said:

"It would not be a service to a client to take an appeal."

He said other courts have ruled amusement taxes are valid and indicated the Montgomery county court would reject an appeal.

THE TAX was adopted by the school board to provide an estimated $7500 to meet the needs of its budget. It is probable the tax will bring in much more since George A. Marshman, operator of the Sanatoga speedway, estimated it would bring in more than $10,000 from the track alone.

Marshman, who did not object to the tax, said:

Shoppers Will Have Extra Holiday Hours In Pottstown Stores

Extra shopping hours for Pottstonians bent on Memorial Day buying announced yesterday by Jack Hoffman, co-chairman of the mercantile bureau's hours committee.

"With a break in the weather, Pottstown's stores will be crowded this week," Hoffman said yesterday. "The return of sunshine started every person thinking about Summer buying. With sunshine and warmth predicted for the remainder of the week, the holiday demand is likely to be brisk."

Hoffman said Pottstown's stores would remain open Thursday night until 9 o'clock for holiday shoppers. Stores will open at the regular hour that day, at 9:30 a. m., giving Pottstown almost 12 hours to buy Memorial Day needs.

"It looks like a gala holiday and a last minute rush here," Hoffman said.

Pottstown stores will be closed Friday, but will be open as usual Saturday, from 9:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Willis Freed Of Assault, Arms Counts

The U. S. Army saved David Willis, 50, of 666 Jefferson avenue, from a possible heavy fine and jail sentence last night.

Charges of aggravated assault and battery, playfully and wantonly pointing firearms, failure to stop at the scene of an accident and drunk and disorderly conduct against Willis were dropped because the complainant, Alvin Williams, 21, of 710 Minter street, will enter the Army today.

Willis was arrested by Pottstown police early Sunday morning after he assaulted Williams with a shotgun. He was arrested at his home with a second loaded shotgun.

Williams took away the first he had carried, when he threatened him with it at the Williams' home.

The youth, who is one of four draftees who will leave for the Army this morning, withdrew his charges against Willis when the older man agreed to pay the $16.50 costs, $34 damage to Williams' car and his hospital bills.

JUSTICE OF THE Peace Raymond C. Kelley, of the Second ward, permitted the charges to be withdrawn before a hearing since Williams was going into service. If Willis had been held for trial, it would have been necessary to subpoena Williams to have him released long enough to appear as a witness against him.

Williams suffered lacerations of his right wrist in the altercation in which he took a loaded shotgun away from Willis. He was treated at Memorial hospital.

Willis suffered a fracture of the left arm in the scuffle. He was discharged from Pottstown hospital so he could appear before Kelley.

Farmer's Story Of Hurt Fawns Leads Newstips

A Pottstown area farmer who wasn't too busy to hear the pathetic cry of an injured fawn was the winner yesterday of the $5 first prize in The Mercury's weekly newstip contest.

Melvin Zook, Pottstown Star Route, passed the heart-tugging little story along, in the hope that Mercury readers weren't too busy to read about a helpless little animal. They weren't, of course, and Zook was $5 richer yesterday.

One of tiny twin fawns was killed accidentally by Zook's tractor; the other was almost plowed under before it was rescued.

Zook turned the surviving fawn over to its mother, but not before letting The Mercury get an unusual photo of the beautiful little fawn.

It all went to show again that the best entries in the newstip derby are the little, out-of-the-way

2d Escapee Seized In N. J.; Pottstown Man Still at Large

Harry Rumford, 30, Upland, Chester county, one of three men who escaped from the Eastern state penitentiary farm on Route 113 near Graterford on May 19, was arrested in North Bergen, N. J., Sunday night at 11:05 o'clock on a charge of vagrancy. He had 9 cents in his pocket.

Rumford is the second to be apprehended after the group escaped from a 25-man work gang on the farm. He was serving a 2½ to 5 year sentence for burglary.

Gordon Kates, 35, Philadelphia, who was serving a term for a parole violation was caught the past week in New York city.

Still at large is a 25-year old Pottstown man, Harold D. Martz, 1255 Maple street, who was serving a 2½ to 5-year sentence for larceny of an automobile.

RUMFORD was arrested by two North Bergen detectives who saw him roaming through the residential district of that city. They charged him with vagrancy.

It was not until yesterday that he admitted that he was wanted as an escapee from the Eastern State penitentiary.

Two State police officers from the Pennsylvania State police's Jeffersonville barracks will transport Rumford from North Bergen to the Eastern State penitentiary today.

ANTIQUE CARS —

ERNEST V. HUNTER, a regional director of the AACA and chairman of the meet, will enter ten cars; John Merkel, 1148 High street, will enter two cars, and R. Albert Clemens, Collegeville, also will have two cars in the meet.

One car, a 1904 Pierce-Arrow, will be entered by J. A. Russell, Orlando, Fla., and another, a two-cylinder 1910 Sears, will be entered by Howard Young, Lake Bluff, Ill. The oldest car entered to date is an 1898 mountain wagon, the second Autocar ever made, which will be driven by Lewis S. Clark, 88-year-old founder of the Autocar company.

The meet will be preceded by registration at The Hill school Friday, June 13, from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. There will be a tour of the Doehler-Jarvis corporation plant from 1 p. m. to 2 p. m.; a tour of the Spicer Manufacturing division of the Dana corporation from 2 p. m. to 3 p. m.; and a tour of the Firestone Tire and Rubber company plant from 3 p. m. to 4 p. m.

The Firestone tour will be followed by a banquet at the plant's office cafeteria at 7 p. m. for 250 persons. Roger S. Firestone will be host to the group.

A second banquet will be held at the Brookside Country club for all those unable to be seated at the Firestone plant.

The cars will be on display at The Hill school and will be judged from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. Saturday, June 14. They then will take part in the parade which starts at 2 o'clock.

Military Correspondence Discussed by Reservist

The preparation and procedure of military correspondence was discussed by Capt. John C. Whitman, Norristown, last night at a training session of Pottstown Flight C, 9545th Volunteer Air Reserve Training unit, at the American Legion home.

Capt. Whitman is a member of Flight C, 9546th VARTU.

Lieut. Robert A. Reis gave the orientation lecture.

Plans were made to hold outdoor meetings of the unit during the Summer months.

ZONING DECISION —

dent of the fire company, said he thought the liquor question was beside the point of the appeal.

Carl M. Binder, attorney for the firemen, said he doubted whether even agreeing not to have a liquor license would end the residents' objections.

After hearing three hours of argument in the courthouse in Norristown, Judge Forrest told the attorneys that if they filed their briefs promptly, he might be able to hand down a decision before his July vacation began.

North End Fire company is 2 years old and has 700 members, but it has no fire house or apparatus. In 1950, it bought a 252-by-130 foot lot on the northwest corner of Evans and Prospect streets (across an alley from the rear of Drummheller's Food mart) from contractor Warren B. Zern for $5540. Zern later donated $1500 to the fire company treasury.

THE COMPANY planned to erect a residential-type fire house. The plan has been left hanging because of the opposition of nearby residents and the decision of the zoning board.

The question of the fire company's intentions about a liquor license was never definitely answered. Closest thing to an answer came during Craig's questioning of Hartenstine.

Craig: "Do you intend to have a liquor license?"

Hartenstine: "That's something we can't decide here. We're not here to get a liquor license. . . . We're not here to discuss that."

Craig: "Would you answer my question, please, sir?"

Hartenstine: "There's no intention at the moment."

H. Lewis Williams, 880 North Evans street, manager of Bethlehem Steel company's plant and one of four property-owners living near the proposed firehouse site to testify to their objections, said later that he interpreted Hartenstine's comment to mean that the fire company would seek a license.

The judge asked the borough solicitor about the zoning board's rejection of the appeal. "Where did they say it (the proposed firehouse) should be?" the judge asked.

Wells replied, "They didn't."

A FEW minutes later, the judge said: "I think the board there came short of doing their duty."

"A fire company serves the purpose of zoning," the judge declared. "Health and safety—that's what's zoning's for."

For the fire company, there was one witness who didn't appear: at the zoning board hearing April 24, 1951—A. Emery Lord, eighth ward councilman and chairman of the company's property committee.

He, like Hartenstine, came loaded with facts about North End real estate.

Time and time again, Craig tried to lead Lord or Hartenstine into saying that there were other, equally desirable lots available to the company.

Each time, Lord or Hartenstine calmly pointed out their objections to alternative sites—this was not centrally enough located, that one was much too big for the fire company's needs.

THE THIRD witness for the company was Borough Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer. He, too, said that the Evans and Prospect streets location was the best. He emphasized that a North End fire company was needed badly.

A central point in the company's case was that the proposed fire house site is right on top of the business development at Charlotte and Prospect streets.

Binder's cross-examination of protesting residents brought out that several of them had not objected to the erection of stores there a few years ago.

For the residents, Craig

To Enter Service

Four Pottstown area draftees will leave for the Schuylkill arsenal induction on the 7:17 o'clock train this morning. R. Ross Longaker, clerk of Local Board 110, reported last night the quartet will report to borough hall at 6:30 this morning. Three of the draftees are (left to right) Alvin N. Williams, 710 Mintzer street; Charles L. Nester, 335 Spruce street; Philip E. Segneri, Linfield. The fourth member of the quartet is Robert F. Kirlin, 26 West Fifth street. meeting he was still not in favor of the builder paying for the streets. He felt the borough should foot the bill.

One builder, Allan Hutt, told The Mercury that a person should not be compelled to pay for a street past his home when the public will be allowed to run over it. He made his remark after the meeting.

He said in the earlier developments of the borough home owners were not required to pay for streets.

HE SAID there were many ways to raise money. He pointed out the heavy outside streams of traffic which daily use the borough streets and declared a wage tax could be levied against outside workers who are employed in Pottstown and help wear out borough streets.

Dolph H. Fink, of Philadelphia, discussed what can and cannot be done with G. I. P. H. A. and conventional mortgages. He pointed out the availability of the former two type mortgages is low.

Builders announced four committees. Serving on the publicity committee are L. Ernest Pickard, Alan Hutt, Dominic DeAngelo.

Serving on the membership committee will be David G. Welsh, Frank Hutt, and William G. Carahan.

Anthony Veach and Russell Keim make up the program committee and Charles Bixler and William Bernhardt are on the council committee. The latter will alternate attending sessions of borough council.

Associated with Binder was Attorney Harry F. Hauser.

GAMBLING TAX —

$30 worth of merchandise or whatever amount he had contributed up to that time.

At the end of 30 weeks, all the customers whose names haven't been drawn get $30 worth of merchandise, therefore breaking even, and boosting sales for the businessman.

Some businesses who may not make too much on the lottery expect the increased traffic of participants to result in higher sales.

Merchandise clubs have been formed for such goods as men's suits, women's lingerie, and chinaware.

IN BOYERTOWN, a large number of such clubs had existed up to two months ago, when word got around that the Government was planning to tax them. Since then, the number has dwindled to just a few.

Many borough tailor shops are reported to be sponsoring such clubs to increase business, but it is believed doubtful that they will continue to do so if they have to pay the gambling tax, or violate the law.

VISION CLEARED —

mologist who had treated the eyes of the king of Siam and hundreds of other personalities.

THE READING doctor told Moyer the blisters he had suffered in his youth had left the white spots on his corneas. The spots and the too-conical shape of the corneas caused the film on his eyes and created his world of fog, he was told.

A cornea transplant was recommended. In this operation the cornea of a dead person is removed and grafted within 24 to 48 hours after the death onto a blind person's eye in place of the latter's cornea.

Nov. 5, Moyer went to New York City when summoned by Dr. Castroviejo and remained in the Hotel Wales for 10 days until he was informed a cornea was available.

He was operated on at 5 p. m. Nov. 15 in the doctor's own 6-story hospital, then transferred to the St. Claire hospital annex. Two weeks later he returned to the Wales with a tight bandage over his right eye.

Twenty days after the operation he complained of pain in the eye and the doctor diagnosed the source of the pain as an infection.

"I HAD bad teeth and the doctor said they might be the cause of the infection," Moyer related in his Pennsylvania Dutch accent last night, "so I had seven teeth taken out in about a week and my eye felt better."

Not only did the pain leave his right eye after the extractions, but the vision in his left eye began improving until today it almost is the same as it was before the dreadful day in the distillery when the fog settled over him.

Of the improvement in his left eye, Moyer said:

"How the left got better, I don't know! It really got better since I got home. Maybe it was from the teeth being pulled or maybe from the medicine they put in it, I don't know. Maybe it was because of both."

Though the fog has lifted from that eye, Moyer's vision in it still is far from perfect. With his glasses, which he has worn more than 40 years because the cornea blisters left him extremely near-sighted, he can read and write, but must have the paper within a few inches from his face.

HE SAID he can see distant objects clearly since the mist has dissipated. The right lens of the gold-framed spectacles is polarized to protect the transplant from strong light.

He has made repeated trips back to New York by bus for inspections of the transplant by Dr. Castroviejo or one of his students and must return again June 20.

The operation, hospital expenses and treatment have cost him "more than $1000," but he feels the money definitely has not been wasted, not as long as he again has sight in one eye and a much better hope for the same in the other.

He has been able to return to planting corn, wheat and oats on his 36 acres, 18 of which surround his green and white-trimmed masonry home on Route 100, and that is what pleases him most. The remainder of his land is near Bechtelsville and in another part of Bailly.

He has been farming the land since his parents, Augustus and Elmira (Yoder) Moyer, moved to his present home from his native Pikeville when he was nine.

The first telegraph line across the United States from coast to coast was completed in 1861.

Trip to Washington Begins Today for Graduating Class

For the first time in more than 20 years, a Royersford High school graduating class will leave this morning on a three-day jaunt to Washington, D. C. and environs.

Accompanied by Dr. Oliver C. Kuntzleman, supervising principal, John Diller and Miss Virginia McKenney, of the faculty, the 1952 class will leave at 6:41 a. m. today by train from the Royersford station of the Reading railroad.

Due to arrive at Annapolis, Md., at 11 a. m., the itinerary provides a visit through the U. S. Naval academy, lunch and then a bus trip to Washington for a sightseeing trip of the capital and other places. After dinner tonight the group will take a moonlight cruise down the Potomac.

After breakfast tomorrow at 7:30 a. m., the class will leave at 8:30 o'clock for a bus trip through Washington, returning at 11:30 a. m. for lunch and a continuation of the bus trip to Lincoln Memorial, Smithsonian institute and National Art gallery.

RETURNING AT 5 p. m. to the hotel headquarters for dress, they then will have dinner at the Casino Royal followed by dancing, and a bus trip at 9 p. m. to Glen Echo amusement park.

The last day, Thursday, will begin at 7:30 a. m. with breakfast at the hotel, another bus trip through Washington at 8:30 a. m. visits to the FBI building, Department of Justice building and Congressional library.

After lunch at 11:30 a. m., the pupils will pack their bags and take a bus trip to Arlington National cemetery, Mt. Vernon, leaving Washington at 6:30 p. m. via train for the trip home. They are due to arrive at Royersford station of the Reading railroad at 10:51 o'clock Thursday night.

Retired School Janitor Proudly Issues Diplomas

McCOMAS, W. Va., May 26 (AP)—John Stike, 66, gray-haired and extremely proud, issued diplomas to 48 McComas High school pupils here tonight.

The graduating class had requested that Stike be picked for the honor because of "the many favors he has done for us." Stike is the school janitor who retired the past year.

Royersford to Test Air Raid Warnings At 9:35 A. M. Today

Royersford will test its alarm system for air raid warnings during the Montgomery county-wide test this morning, beginning at 9:35 o'clock.

Carrying out plans arranged by Burgess Ralph H. Landes and Chief of Police Bryson Turner, the Humane fire siren and the siren atop Royersford borough hall both will be used to sound the "red" signal, and the "all clear" ten minutes later.

These two sirens will be used in an attempt to determine if either or both can be heard in all parts of town.

The "red" will sound off at 9:35 o'clock and the all-clear will come at 9 45 o'clock.

THE "RED" will be a succession of half-minute blasts. The all clear will be a steady blast.

Authorities made it clear that pedestrians and motor traffic will not be expected to stop during this test. Everything will continue to function normally.

To establish if the alarms are heard in all sections of town, it was requested that residents living in the north, east and south portions of the borough should notify borough authorities if they do not hear the sirens.

Bike Race Interferes With Boston Symphony

LONDON, May 26 (AP)—A bicycle race in France forced the Boston Symphony orchestra to postpone curtain time an hour for a concert here tonight.

The bicycle race, between Bordeaux and Paris, had the right of way over other traffic, including a truck carrying part of the orchestra's equipment. As a result, the truck missed an early boat train.

The equipment, including six double basses and all the orchestra's music, was loaded into a subsequent train, necessitating the hour delay.

Enjoy a Year-round VACATION with a YORK room air conditioner FROM ...

HEAT AND HUMIDITY. Take a vacation from energy-sapping, sleep-robbing heat and humidity. York's Cooling Maze Coil cools and dries faster—extra cooling power for extra-torrid spells.

DUST. York's big filters declare an all-year holiday from dirt and dust that add dollars to your cleaning bills—more hours to your cleaning chores.

STUFFINESS. Take 365 days a year "off" from stuffy air. York ventilates and circulates—draft-free! York's Pump-Out whisks away stale air.

NOISE — INTRUSION. Be free of annoying intrusion, irritating outside noises. Windows can be shut tight . . . your York operates at "hush-hush" level.

4 Nations Pen German Pact

BONN, Germany, May 26 (AP)—The United States, Britain and France signed with Western Germany today a historic peace contract welcoming 48 million former enemies as new Allies in a gamble to avoid world war III. But a perilous road lies ahead before the contract can take effect.

Moscow Gets Angry, Pledges Sympathy to Opponents of Treaty

MOSCOW, May 26 (AP)—Pravda, mirroring Kremlin anger at events in West Germany, announced today the Soviet Union would give "sympathy and support" to all Germans who opposed the signing of a peace contract with the United States, Britain and France.

(In West Germany the chief opposition to the signing came from the Social Democrats, opponents of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Government and West Germany's second strongest party. Western observers saw in the Pravda statement a hint that Communists might seek an alliance of opportunity with the Social Democrats—ordinarily their bitter political foes—to bring pressure against the Adenauer Government and against ratification of the peace contract by the West German parliament.)

Pravda made its announcement in its leading front page editorial. The paper, official organ of the USSR's Communists, stated that the German people now are at a turning point in their history. By fighting the peace contract, Pravda said, the German people would be defending the cause of European and world peace and would win "the sympathy and support of all peace-loving people."

Communists Murdered 115 of Own Number To Gain Control in Kojé Prison Stockade

KOJÉ ISLAND, Korea, Tuesday, May 27 (AP)—The Reds murdered 115 of their own number in gaining control inside Kojé prison compounds beginning with savage struggles the past September, it was disclosed Monday.

At least that many were beaten to death, hanged or died from slow torture—some of them "executed" after sentence by kangaroo courts. One man was buried alive.

Informed sources said the worst battle was from Sept. 16 to Sept. 20, an episode in which 100 prisoners were wounded, 15 fatally. A dozen Allied guards were hurt, including three American infantrymen, as they tried to stop the fighting.

Attesting to the strong domination of the barbed wire stockades by the Reds, these sources said officials were able to screen only half of the 80,000 inmates now on Kojé to determine which ones want to return to Red rule.

THE RED compound leaders toughly rejected screening for all prisoners in some stockades, although many anti-Communists were believed to be among them. (Allied truce negotiators have reported that 70,000 die-hard Reds want to return to Red rule and that nearly 100,000 other military and civilian internees have said they would rather die.)

The Communists still firmly control events inside the compounds. Allied personnel have been ordered to keep out. The

BARGE, TANKER COLLIDE IN RIVER

Two Killed as Vessels Laden With Gas, Oil Explode on Delaware

WILMINGTON, Del., May 26 (AP)—A gasoline-laden barge and a tanker carrying crude oil collided in the rain-swept Delaware river last night. Both exploded and burst into flames. Two men were killed and eight others, including a father and son, were missing.

Of the 39 survivors—the barge had a crew of nine and the tanker 40—only Sjur Tellefsen, a Norwegian now an American citizen living in Brooklyn, was accessible to tell what happened when the 10,441-ton tanker Michael and the 1162-ton A. C. Dodge collided about 15 miles south of here shortly before midnight.

And the 29-year-old Tellefsen, speaking from his bed at Wilmington General hospital, could throw no light on the exact cause of the third ship disaster in this area in the past 10 days. On May 15, two ships collided and burned in the nearby Chesapeake canal, killing four men. The past week three men drowned when a freighter and tug smashed in the Delaware near Chester, Pa.

Tellefsen, the only survivor from the barge, said he was asleep when "I was jolted out of bed by the crash. I was very lucky to get out of my boat alive." He was treated for shock and slight burns.

THE U. S. Coast Guard said it had no official version of the collision in one of the world's busiest waterways.

Among the missing were John D. Elliott, 60, captain of the Dodge, and his son, John W., the second mate, both of Collingsdale, Pa.

Others unaccounted for are Charles Ray, Brooklyn, chief engineer; John Holmes, Staten Island, first assistant engineer; crew members Ray Anderson, New Haven, Conn.; E. E. Moller, Brooklyn; Martin Kleppe, Brooklyn; and William O'Brien, Long Island.

After the collision the Michael drifted to the New Jersey shore and ran up on a beach. The ship had a gaping hole at the water line of its starboard bow. Later it was pulled off a sandbar by tugs and proceeded up the river.

Jet-Powered 'Copter Given Series of Tests

CULVER CITY, Calif., May 26 (AP)—The first model of the jet-powered XH-17, described by Howard Hughes' Aircraft company as the world's largest helicopter, made a restricted debut today.

It was moved out of its hangar for a series of ground tests. A wire fence surrounds the area. Photographers were not permitted closer than 150 feet.

Built by Hughes Aircraft for the U. S. Air Force, it is powered by two modified General Electric turbojets which supply gas pressure through ducts leading up the rotor shaft and out to the tips of the rotor blades.

Presbyterians Act To Restore Law on Church Remarriage

NEW YORK, May 26 (AP)—Presbyterians today launched steps to restore a church law requiring a waiting period for remarriages—and said they hadn't intended to void the rule in the first place.

"But for the next year at least, it's technically out," said Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, of Philadelphia, stated clerk of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

The mixup came at the church's 164th annual general assembly, its supreme governing body. "We didn't intend for it to happen, but it happened," Blake said. Only the past Friday the assembly, without discussion, voted final approval of a new section in the "directory of worship" replacing one which contained a one-year waiting period law.

The new section, which a majority of local Presbyteries had approved before it came before the assembly, specifies no time lapse as a requirement before a divorced person can remarry in the church.

Today, when the Rev. Albert G. Butzer, of Buffalo, N. Y., head of a commission on marriage and divorce, explained that the one-year provision was officially nullified, a volley of protests came from the floor.

"It was a tremendous mistake to eliminate this rule," said one delegate, who did not identify himself. The Rev. Harrison Ray Anderson, of Chicago, head of the church's general council, said: "We didn't think the press was going to take this up."

State Movie Ban Voided by Court

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP)—The court set forth will require Supreme court ruled today that clarification in many more cases. (A) It's all right to broadcast before it is known just how much music and commercials to street freedom from censorship the films car and bus riders, and (B) It's are entitled to.

The street car rider case involved the Capital Transit company of Washington, D. C. The company has signed up with a local radio station for a program which includes music, commercials, news and weather reports.

This is broadcast through loudspeakers in street cars and buses. The court voted 7 to 1 that no constitutional rights are violated. But Justice Douglas, in a sharp dissent, said he thinks the broadcasts to a captive audience are a violation of a man's privacy.

"The right to be let alone is indeed the beginning of all freedom," he said. Douglas said that now it may be a commercial firm wanting to peddle its wares that uses the transit riders for an audience; tomorrow, he cautioned, it could be the Government.

"Once a man is forced to submit to one type of radio program," Douglas said, "he can be forced to submit to another. It may be but a short step from a cultural program to a political program."

"If liberty is to flourish, Government should never be allowed to force people to listen to any radio program."

THE COURT was unanimous in its opinion that the State was wrong in banning "The Miracle."

But the justices went a step further than they ever have before. They said that the constitutional guarantees of free speech and free press cover the movies.

This obviously threw something of a cloud over the censorship agencies which operate in many states. But the new concept which

THE CHRYSLER NEW YORKER NEWPORT

WHAT ARE YOU DOING TOMORROW?

This invitation could result in the most important day of your motoring life. We'd like you to take the wheel and really drive a Chrysler New Yorker car. Everything good you've heard about this great car is true... and then some. Its new V-8 engine... its power steering... its power brakes... its astonishing comfort... each is an experience you will thrill to, and remember.

So... tomorrow... or any time that is convenient... come discover real power steering! Hydraulic power does 4/5 the work as you turn the wheel... and also gives you 5 times the usual control on bad roads. Turn the wheels with one finger when standing still... or drive all day with no shoulder strain at all! You get the same wonderful "wheel feel" every mile!

Drive America's finest engine! Feel the acceleration, response, reserve power of 180 V-8 horsepower. Learn why owners praise the matchless performance they get... without even having to use premium fuel!

Feel what power brakes are like! Power from the engine boosts the power of your toe. With up to two-thirds less than normal pressure, you will "gentle" this solid, powerful car to the surest, easiest stops in your life!

Test the comfort that's unequaled! On body-pleasing chair-height seats... with sweeping vision all around... you take good roads and bad on shock absorbers with over twice the shock-absorbing power of those on cars you've had before! Come in tomorrow!

Hits the Big Time

A young lady with talent to burn is Cheryl Parker, a former resident of Pottstown, who will make her official debut as a Rockette in Radio City Music Hall, New York, Thursday night. Cheryl was the first of 5 girls recently auditioned to be accepted for a job with the world-famous dancing group.

Pottstown Girl Ready To Make N. Y. Debut

A Pottstown-born girl who was bitten in the scalp and face by a St. Bernard dog several years ago will make her debut as a Rockette in Radio City Music Hall Thursday.

Cheryl Parker, a young lady with the grace of a swan, has made the grade with the nationally famous Rockettes.

Cheryl, the granddaughter of Mrs. Annie Jacobson, 501 High street, learned how to maneuver her talented limbs at the Jack Stanley School of Dance, Broadway, New York.

She began lessons with Stanley in April, 1947 and has stuck to the grind of developing into a first-rate performer since that first lesson.

STANLEY REPORTED yesterday, "Everyone predicts a bright future for the girl. The producers all like her. She is a very beautiful girl with exceptional grace and a fine figure."

The dance instructor illustrated Cheryl's spirit. He said her training was interrupted when she was bitten seriously about the head and face by a St. Bernard dog.

"After a considerable amount of surgery," Stanley explained, "all traces of the bite were removed."

He said the black-eyed Cheryl, who stands 5 feet, 4½ inches in her stocking feet, has worked Summer stock with Frank Sinatra, in Atlantic City, and appeared in Summer productions with Bob Hope and Betty Hutton.

Stanley asserted Cheryl should gain poise and experience from appearing with the Rockettes. "Next Fall I hope to place her in a Broadway musical," he added.

Rose Society Plans 1st Show In YWCA Gym

Final plans for the first annual rose show to be sponsored by the Pottstown Rose society were completed during a meeting of the committee chairmen at the home of President William Ludy Sr., 122 Beech street, last night.

The show will be presented in conjunction with the bicentennial celebration in the YWCA gym on June 7 between 8 a. m. and 8 p. m.

All growers of outdoor roses in the Pottstown area are invited to enter flowers in the 60 different classes of the show. Entries will be accepted from 8 a. m. to 10:30 a. m. on exhibition day.

Chairman Joseph Selagyi reported that 500 entries are expected in the show. Two sterling silver bowls and three certificates will be awarded to the top winners.

A PERPETUAL Sweepstakes Bowl will be presented to the person with the most points in the various classes, and the Perpetual Club Arrangement Bowl will be given to the women's organization displaying the best club arrangements.

A gold medal certificate will be awarded to the person with the best rose of the show; a silver medal certificate for the second best rose of the show, and a bronze medal certificate for the best individual arrangement of the show.

Judges of rose specimens will be Fred Glaes, president of the Reading Rose society; Harry Erdman of Hershey, consultant to the American Rose society, and Morgan Reinhold of Reading, apprentice judge of the American Rose society.

Judges of arrangements will be Mrs. Robert Trump, Amble, and Mrs. George Dick of the Reading Rose society.

Judging will be conducted from 10:30 a. m. to noon. Viewing will be permitted after the judging is completed.

Exhibitors are limited to one award in each class, and all roses entered for competition must be grown outdoors.

"Our aim in sponsoring this show is to interest residents in growing more roses and better roses," Chairman Selagyi said. "We plan to hold an event of this kind every year."

The Pottstown Rose society, which was organized the past October, presently numbers 57 members.

Police Find Cache, Dead Man in Home

CLEVELAND, May 26 (AP)—Police discovered $2187 today in the shabby home where a 70-year-old recluse was found dead. His wife had been keeping vigil beside his body for two weeks.

The cache, $2141 in cash and $46 in stock dividend checks, was in an aluminum saucepan, wrapped in a soiled blanket.

The body of John Vyskocil, a retired wallpaper hanger, was found in the debris-littered bungalow late Saturday. He had been dead for at least two weeks and his wife, Albie, 65, apparently had been sleeping in the bed beside his body.

Neighbors said the couple lived alone without heat, light or gas and only the barest necessities for food.

Mrs. Vyskocil has been placed in the psychiatric ward at the county jail.

The two sterling silver trophies to be presented to the rose show being sponsored by the Pottstown Rose Society on June 7 are inspected by these members last night. From left to right, Mrs. Edward Fritsch, vice president, holds the Perpetual Sweepstakes Bowl, to be awarded to the entrant with the most points in all divisions; Mrs. Herbert Stauffer, trustee, and Joseph Selagyi, show chairman, gaze at the Perpetual Club Arrangement Bowl, to be awarded to the women's organization that furnishes the best arrangement of roses.

Power Shovel Uncovers Bones of Dinosaur

HARRIMAN, N. Y., May 26 (AP)—Bones of a dinosaur have been unearthed by a power shovel digging a drainage ditch. The bones were about four feet underground.

Operators of the shovel, John Leinweber and Christopher Schmick, both of Warwick, N. Y., said today they came across the bones the past Thursday.

Scientists who have seen them said the bones belonged to an anchisaurus, a small type of dinosaur. A rear leg, jaw bone and parts of ribs and vertebrae were unearthed.

From the bones, scientists estimated the reptile had a 40 inch jaw and a leg 68 inches high.

Enrolment Day Set For Local Children Of Kindergarten Age

Registration of children planning to enter the Pottstown kindergartens in September will be held Wednesday, June 4.

Parents were requested to bring the prospective kindergarten children to the several school buildings between 9 a. m. and noon, or 1 and 3 p. m. Parents should bring along the birth certificate of each child.

Children to be eligible for kindergarten starting in September, must reach their fifth birthday prior to Feb. 1, 1953.

The present kindergarten teachers will be on hand to greet the parents and enrol the children and provide them with general information concerning the school program. It was requested that all parents planning to send their children to kindergarten will see to it that their children are properly registered on this date, school authorities said.

Vaccination certificates are not necessary for this enrolment date, but certificates of successful vaccination must be presented at the opening of school in September.

Every accident you don't have
IS MONEY IN THE BANK!

BE ON GUARD at home — always. Remember, for instance, whenever you leave an electric iron, to pull its cord from the socket. Fire is costly!

BE ON GUARD while driving. Expect railroad crossings when driving at night. LISTEN for bells, LOOK for flashing lights. Get into the habit of coming to a complete STOP — even though a train isn't coming. That habit will pay off — and will make a railroad crossing as safe as your own street corner.

BE ON GUARD in the plant. Learn the proper methods of lifting heavy objects. A strain can be serious and expensive — don't take chances.

Call by number

Out-of-town telephone service is fast today. Most calls can be put through while you hold the line. For the fastest possible service, call by number. Here's why. Unless you give the operator the number of the out-of-town telephone you want, your call must be detoured through Information in the distant city. That takes time. Calling by number helps get you there faster — often twice as fast! To help you have at your finger tips the numbers you need, we'd like to give you a Personal Telephone Directory. Jot down in this handy little booklet the numbers of out-of-town telephones you may have occasion to call. Ask the Business Office for your free copy.

Table Decorations Highlight Auxiliary Birthday Social

Everyone observed her birthday in style last night at the 1952 birthday party given by the Ladies' auxiliary of the Salvation Army in the citadel.

More than 75 women attended the affair, for which individual table hostesses had decorated their tables beautifully to suit the month.

The evening's program opened with a musical skit, directed by toast mistress, Mrs. Effie Saylor. Participating in the skit were: Mrs. Pauline Linderman, Mrs. Shirley Colledge, Mrs. Frances Wittaker, Mrs. Mabel High, Mrs. Thelma Wolney and Miss Sara Britton, pianist.

After the opening musical, each table was displayed, and the hostesses gave a short program.

The month of January was in charge of Mrs. Laura Sassaman and Mrs. Gaul, who sang "Auld Lang Syne." Their tables were decorated for a New Year's Eve party, with streamers and party hats, which were given as favors to the women whose birthday anniversaries fall in that month.

FEBRUARY, with decorations of red and white, was in charge of Mrs. Grace Kulp and Mrs. Caroline Davis. Their centerpiece was of candles in red and white rosette bases, and dolls dressed for walking in winter snow. Favors for this table were small rosette baskets of red and white, filled with candies. As their entertainment Mrs. Kulp recited an appropriate poem.

St. Patrick's Day was the theme for the March table, which was decorated by Mrs. Marie Haney and Mrs. Mary Berthold. A miniature Irish castle with green flags flying was their centerpiece, and was surrounded by tiny green hats. Guests at this table received favors of green handkerchiefs adorned with the rose of Kilmaree. The entertainment devised for this table was a game, "kissing the blarney stone," with the stone a flour-filled cloth bag.

Mrs. Marlene Hofferker, hostess for the April table, chose Easter as her theme, and used a centerpiece of a large rabbit guarding a basket filled with tiny rabbits. A floral centerpiece of purple Johnny-jump-ups and yellow tulips also was added, with favors of candy-filled Easter baskets. The song, "Peter Cottontail," was the entertainment offering of this table.

MAYPOLES, with tiny dolls dancing and holding satin streamers centered the May table, at which Mrs. Wolney and Mrs. Colledge were hostesses. Favors for small vases filled with Spring flowers, and they were entertained with the song, "While Strolling Through the Park One Day."

June, the bride's month, featured a table centerpiece of a three-tier cake, surrounded at the base with forget-me-nots and coral beads, and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Hostesses, Mrs. Eva Moyer and Mrs. Lillian Strunk, presented candy-filled silver wedding bells as favors, and sang the Wedding March as their entertainment.

In keeping with the Fourth of July, Mrs. Linderman and Mrs. Gladys Lindauer decorated the July table with a cannon centerpiece, American flags, skyrockets and had as favors small firecrackers filled with candies. As their entertainment selection Mrs. Lindauer recited "Independence Bell."

The vacation month, August, was decorated with a beach scene—a mirror swimming pool, bathers, sandy beach and paper umbrellas. Hostesses, Mrs. Frances Leh and Mrs. Helen Pindjak, sang "By the Sea."

"BACK TO school" was the theme chosen by Mrs. Ruth Linton, hostess for the September

Isaac Thomas Addresses Soroptimist Club Group

Mr. Isaac Thomas, senior master emeritus and secretary of the Alumni association of The Hill school, spoke on "The History of Pottstown" last night before members and guests of the Soroptimist club of Pottstown.

At the dinner held in Clover Leaf restaurant, Mr. Thomas gave information about the types of people who settled in Pottstown when it was first founded. The main nationalities represented were English, Dutch, German and Swedes.

"Their first interest in coming here was in finding precious stones," he said, "but the real treasure was iron."

MR. THOMAS reported that some great men have walked Pottstown's sidewalks and ridden through its streets.

"It is wonderful to think that we have had men of that type visit here, and we hope to have many more," he concluded.

Mrs. Alice Willauer, president, presided over the social meeting. The group voted to donate money to the Salvation Army to help purchase a new canteen truck.

THE MUSICAL portion of the program was planned by Mrs. Ann Wagonhurst. Mrs. Paul Favinger gave a vocal solo, "I Shall Not Pass Again This Way." Two piano solos, "Prelude in C Sharp Minor," and "Nola," were presented by Miss Patsy Miller, who, with Mrs. Favinger, played a piano duet.

It was announced that 11 members of the club are planning to attend the seventh anniversary dinner of the Soroptimist club of Easton tonight at the Hotel Easton.

The next meeting will be held June 9 in Clover Leaf restaurant.

LAST NIGHT'S meeting was closed with the singing of "The Lord's Prayer" by Mrs. Favinger.

Members present were: Mrs. Willauer, Mrs. Wagonhurst, Miss Mary Jane Toms, Mrs. Margaret Clements, Mrs. Florence Manthorne, Miss Kathryn L. Yerger, Mrs. Irma Smale, Mrs. Marion Detweiler, Mrs. Ruth Cox, Mrs. Mary Overholzer, Mrs. Geneva Moyer, Mrs. Ann Hasty, Mrs. Lillian Bennett, Mrs. Dorothy Ayres, Mrs. Margaret Fray, Mrs. Helen Riley, Mrs. Dorothy Mutter, Mrs. Ruth Bickel, Mrs. Gladys Marquette.

Guests were:

MRS. JUNE Morgan, Mrs. Violet Vergey, Mrs. John Beidler, Mrs. Paul Favinger, Miss Geraldine Stricker and Miss Miller.

Members who will attend the dinner tonight at Easton are: Mrs. Willauer, Mrs. Clements, Mrs. Mutter, Mrs. Manthorne, Mrs. Fray, Mrs. Ayres, Mrs. Overholzer, Mrs. Dorothy Sands, Mrs. Bickel, Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Mary McElroy.

New Projects Are Begun By Kenilworth 4-H Club

First and second year members of the Kenilworth 4-H club began working on new projects during a recent meeting of the club at the Kenilworth home of Judith Rhoads.

Under the direction of Mrs. Wilbur Rinehart and Mrs. Harry Bickel, first-year members learned how to sew on buttons, and second year girls worked on darning stockings.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, June 11, at 9 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Rinehart, Schuylkill road, Kenilworth.

Attending were: Helen and Ann Bickel, Suzanne and Jane Rinehart, Sandra Bickel, Loretta Wampler, Marlene and Nancy Berkey, Nancy Auxer, Betty Rothenberger, Jeanette Kully, Peggy Whitley, Joyce Retner and Elaine Miller.

Good Diet Lunch

With chicken (and turkey too, for that matter) as attractively priced as any foods these days, you'll probably be having one or the other for Sunday dinner often, and there's really nothing better for them afford such welcome leftovers. Cold cuts, teamed with a tart Florida grapefruit salad, are ideal Sunday supper plates or for luncheon the following day.

The plump sections of Florida grapefruit, now bargain priced at your local grocers, combine wonderfully well with chicken, either mixed or served as a side dish. Here the sections are separated, pinwheel fashion, with strips of bright red canned pimiento. A buffet service such as this is easy to prepare and serve, and the calories count nice and low. Use a low-calorie grapefruit juice dressing over the fruit sections and greens, and you'll feel refreshed and actually be healthier, for grapefruit is one of the best sources of Vitamin C and one of the lowest of all fruits in caloric content.

While the fresh Florida fruit lasts, get enough to use the small sizes for juicing. Fresh grapefruit juice has a tang all its own.

Blend ½ cup water and 2 teaspoons cornstarch; cook, stirring constantly until thickened. Remove from heat; add ½ cup Florida grapefruit juice, 2 tablespoons salad oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon each paprika and dry mustard, ¼ teaspoon Tabasco and ¼ cup catsup; beat until smooth. Add peeled clove of garlic. Shake before using. Yield: 1½ cups.

WATCH YOUR CHILD GROW WITH WONDER BREAD

Let The 8 Elements in Wonder Bread Help Your Child Grow Bigger and Stronger 8 Ways!

Note How Amazing Wonder Bread Compares With Meat, Milk, and Fish 8 Ways (as shown at lower left)

The rate at which your child will develop—mentally as well as physically—depends largely upon the KIND of foods you serve.

This means a well-balanced diet—exactly what many children fail to get.

A recent survey of 9,543 children disclosed the shocking fact that 4 out of 5 are not well fed according to the standards of The National Research Council.

Is there any excuse for this? Very little.

Because these common foods supply ALL the essential food elements your child needs each day: Meat, bread, milk, eggs, fruit, yellow and green-leaved vegetables.

Good for Growth and Energy

As shown in the chart, Wonder Bread is very valuable—because it helps your child grow bigger and stronger 8 ways.

Growing children need TWICE the protein per pound of body weight as grownups.

Penny for penny, Wonder Bread gives your child more body-building protein than the average of meat, milk, fish and eggs.

And Wonder Bread is a substantial energy food. More quickly converted into energy than fat.

Helps Build Stronger, Bigger Bodies 8 Ways

The chart shows the 8 body and brain-building properties of Wonder Bread.

Serve Wonder Bread with meat, fish, eggs, milk, fruit and both yellow and green-leaved vegetables in a balanced diet to supply ALL the food elements your child must have for healthy growth.

8 ounces of Wonder Bread for a growing child cost less than a dime a day. You can afford Wonder Bread for your child.

Doubly Fresh

Children love Wonder Bread. Plain or toasted. For Wonder Bread is doubly fresh—fresh when you buy it; fresh when you eat it. Because it's so-baked—13% longer than many ordinary kinds for lasting freshness.

'An Evening in Vienna' Presented as First In Concert Series by Area Association

The past Sunday afternoon in the Boyertown High school auditorium, the Boyertown Area Celebrity Concert association presented the first of a series of concerts.

The concert entitled, "An Evening in Vienna," included such artists as Miss Virginia Shuey, mezzo-soprano; William Kirkpatrick, tenor, and Alfred Patten, pianist.

The first portion of the program was presented in formal attire and consisted of such familiar songs as "Heiden-Roeslein" by Schubert; "Lullaby" by Brahms, and "Ständchen" by Schubert.

Following intermission, the audience listened to three piano duets presented by Miss Shuey and Patten. The three compositions featured were "Penthesilea" by Hugo Wolf; "The Waltz from Der Rosenkavalier" by Richard Strauss, and the ever-loved "Beautiful Blue Danube" by Johann Strauss. All compositions were in three-quarter time and of three distinct types.

THE FINAL portion of the program was presented by the artists in costume, making a very colorful setting for the presentation of such songs as "Vienna, City of Dreams" by Sieczynski; "I'll See You Again" by Coward; "Yours Is My Heart Alone" from "The Land of Smiles" by Lehár; the "Laughing Song" from "Die Fledermaus" by Johann Strauss, and "My Hero" from "The Chocolate Soldier" by Oscar Strauss.

For encore the group sang a portion of "The Impresario" by Mozart and the "Trio" from "Die Fledermaus" by Johann Strauss.

The performance was called a never-to-be-forgotten one because of the vibrant voices of the artists and the feeling which they put into their songs.

Other concerts to be presented by the Boyertown association will feature David Davies, violinist and Nelson and Neal, duo-pianists. The dates of these concerts will be announced at a later date.

Couple Observes 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Milford S. Welder, 401 East Fourth street, quietly observed their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday.

The couple was married on May 24, 1902 at a parsonage in Topton by the Rev. Archibald C. Schenk. Mrs. Welder, who will be 69 years of age on August 10, was born a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Adam Stetler, Layfield, Montgomery county.

She was born on her father's 60-acre farm which included the land which since that time has become Hickory park. Her father sold the land approximately 20 years ago.

Welder is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Amos C. Welder, Dryville, and he will be 74 years of age on June 25. His chief trade has been that of a miller, having been chief miller in the former J. Monroe Shive flour mill at Layfield, then working in the former Henry Gabel flour mill at Gabelsville.

WELDER THEN RENTED THE SHIVE FLOUR MILL AT LAYFIELD WHICH HE OPERATED FOR EIGHT YEARS, AGAIN RETURNING TO THE GABELSVILLE MILL FOR A THREE-YEAR STINT.

The couple then moved to Boyertown at their present location and Welder secured work with the borough. He then took a night watchman's job with an underwear mill on Rhoads avenue where he was forced to retire approximately four years ago because of illness.

Welder now likes to do odd jobs about the house and particularly likes to work in his garden.

The couple is the parents of six children, five of whom are still living. They are Stanley Welder, 412 East Fourth street; Ralph Welder, 12 South Madison street; Curtis Welder, 629 East Philadelphia avenue; Mrs. Edna Bartman, 18 East Philadelphia avenue, and Hilda, wife of William Gere, 220 St. Mary street, Phoenixville. They also have five grandchildren.

THE CLOVERS USED AS FARM CROPS IN THE UNITED STATES HAVE ALL BEEN INTRODUCED FROM EUROPE.

On the program there will be music by the High school band, the Community chorus under the direction of Warren A. Hohl and Emerson F. Harding, and the Legion quartet. Major Gresh will deliver the main address.

Services, in the event of rain, will be conducted in the Church of Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed.

Professor to Speak As Guest at Services On Memorial Day
Major Levi D. Gresh, professor of government at Kutztown State Teachers college and World War II veteran, will be the guest speaker at Memorial Day services to be conducted on Friday morning at 11 o'clock at the foot of Fairview cemetery.

Plans for the observance of Memorial Day are being completed by the local Charles B. Yerger Post 471, American Legion, and the Boyertown Post 3487, VFW. The committee in charge is comprised of Attorney Ralph C. Body, chairman; Arthur Y. Miller, Edwin Conrad, Henry Miller, John A. Houck and Samuel Surgeoner.

The day's program will begin with a short service to be conducted in Union cemetery. The American Legion drum and bugle corps and the VFW color guard and firing squad will leave from the VFW home at 9:45 a.m. for Union cemetery.

There will be a prayer by the Rev. David F. Longacre, chaplain of the American Legion and pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, firing of several volleys and the benediction by the Rev. Harper L. Schneck, past of the Church of Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed.

Troops Trained for Atomic War
"Operation Mushroom" is the name given a training program in which American troops in Korea are being trained to fight a possible atomic war. Here Pfc. Richard J. Ellis, of Pittsburgh, guards a tunnel leading to an underground room. Recent atomic tests in Nevada brought about this new, precautionary schooling.

Giants Top Flock for Lead

Cubs' Rush Shuts out Cards, 3-0

NEW YORK, May 26 (AP)—The New York Giants whipped the Brooklyn Dodgers Rush hurled his fifth straight victory with tonight, 4-2, to climb into first place in the National League and dropping the Dodgers into second, a half Cardinals and Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell 3-0 game behind. Bobby Thompson drove in three Giants today to maintain their brisk third-place pace in the runs with a home run and a long fly and Whitey National League.

Lockman scored twice via a walk, triple and home run. Rush, who now has a 6-2 record, was backed by a seven-hit attack which included a homer and a two-bagger by third sacker Bill Serena, and a two-run single in the seventh by Bob Ramazzotti.

George Spencer, who relieved starter Jim Hearn with the score tied at 2-2 in the second, turned in a brilliant three-hit performance through 7 2/3 innings to receive credit for the victory. The loser was Carl Erskine, who took over in the second after Brooklyn starter Preacher Roe bowed out for a pinch hitter in the Dodgers' half of the inning.

A crowd of 40,458 cash customers, saw the Giants boost their won and lost mark to 24-8 for a .750 percentage to Brooklyn's 23-8 or .742.

The triumph gave the Giants, who made only four hits, an even split in their first four games with the Dodgers.

Kiner's Homer Helps Bucs Win

PITTSBURGH, May 26 (AP)—Big Ralph Kiner belted his fourth home run of the season and his second in two days in the first inning with two aboard tonight to help the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 6 to 3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Kiner's round tripper came off starter Frank Hiller after the first two Bucs, infielder Pete Castiglione and outfielder Bobby Del Greco singled.

Buc rookie Ronnie Kline, looking for his first major league victory, pitched air-tight ball until the sixth inning when the Reds scored three runs.

Bob Friend finished for the Bucs to gain his third victory. He now holds three of the seven Pirate wins in 37 games.

Coach Bill Posedel of the Pirates and catcher Andy Seminick of the Reds engaged in a brief but heated melee after the second inning and were banished from the game.

Irvin to Begin Practices Soon

NEW YORK, May 26 (AP)—Monte Irvin, New York Giants outfielder who broke his ankle in an exhibition game April 2, will be able to start working out with the club in "two or three weeks," according to Dr. Anthony Palermo, Giants' club physician.

Dr. Palermo removed the cast from Irvin's right ankle today at the Harkness pavilion.

"The ankle looked in pretty good shape," said Dr. Palermo. "He should be on the field building up his muscles when the club comes home from its next road trip (June 10)."

Interstate Loop Extends Season

PHILADELPHIA, May 26 (AP)—The Interstate baseball league season will last an extra week.

Club owners of the Class B league franchises voted recently to extend the season to Sept. 7 in order to make up a number of rained out games.

Practically the entire league schedule was rained out during the first 10 days of the season. Further postponements have piled up during the very rainy month of May.

The decision to extend the season was unanimous.

Landis Cardinals Win 4-1 Contest

CHARLIE Windish pitched and batted his Landis Store Cardinal softball team to its first win of the Montgomery-Berks softball circuit last night, as the Birds dunked East Greenville, 4-1, at home.

Windish limited the Greenies to three hits while he himself batted out a run-scoring first-inning triple and a single that sparked a three-run first frame uprising.

Americans Advance In British Golf Joust

PRESTWICK, Scotland, May 26 (AP)—Defending champion Dick Chapman and the U. S. Amateur king, Billy Maxwell, scored one-sided victories today to lead a strong American charge into the third round of the British Amateur golf championship.

All the big name golfers from across the Atlantic swept forward without the slightest scare. None was carried past the 15th hole of Prestwick's cloud-canopied course.

Chapman, intent little internationalist from Pinehurst, N. C., ousted Lindsay Renfrew, jittery young Scotchman, 6 and 5, while Maxwell, sandy-haired college boy from Odessa, Tex., triumphed over Gordon Peters, former British Walker cup star, 5 and 3.

Henry Stops Jones in 4th

ALLENTOWN, May 26 (AP)—Clarence Henry, Philadelphia heavyweight, scored a technical knockout over Maynard Jones, of Wilmington, tonight when referee Jack Saurina called a halt to the beating the Delaware fighter was taking in the fourth round of their scheduled ten-rounder. Henry weighed 193 and Jones, 198 1/2.

The crowd of 1545, which paid to a gate of $3527.65 for the first outdoor show of the season here, saw Jones take a body beating at close quarter almost from start to finish.

Jones attempted at first to trade punches with the Philadelphia. His best punch of the night was a right cross to Henry's chin at the start of the fourth round, but that just aggravated the Philadelphia and he went to work in earnest.

In a scheduled six-round semifinal Ray Powell, 132, formerly of Aliquippa but now of Allentown, knocked out Tommy Ray, of Philadelphia, 130, in 2:12 of the first round with a hard left hook to the stomach.

Ryan Pleads Guilty

NEW YORK, May 26 (AP)—Tommy (Ryan) Eboli, former fight manager who lost his license after a post-fight disturbance in Madison Square Garden Jan. 11, today pleaded guilty to charges of assaulting Al Weill, International Boxing club matchmaker. Sentence will be pronounced June 19.

Many local fans feel that a Shantz celebration is overdue. Bob has been a model big leaguer in every respect. Specifically, he never has forgotten a Pottstown friend and never has lost the home-grown friendliness that marked his adolescence in Pottstown.

Souderton, which adopted Shantz while he was an East Penn leaguer, already has honored the A's ace. So has Frankford, home of his family at this time.

Marquet, however, has plans for a "Bobby Shantz Night" to end all such affairs.

Many local fans feel that a Shantz celebration is overdue. Bob has been a model big leaguer in every respect. Specifically, he never has forgotten a Pottstown friend and never has lost the home-grown friendliness that marked his adolescence in Pottstown.

Souderton, which adopted Shantz while he was an East Penn leaguer, already has honored the A's ace. So has Frankford, home of his family at this time.

Marquet, however, has plans for a "Bobby Shantz Night" to end all such affairs.

Red Sox Trim Yanks, 6-3

White Sox Whip Browns in Pair

BOSTON, May 26 (AP)—Don Lenhardt powered home five runs with a homer and double off Johnny Sain tonight as the Boston Red Sox up two victories, 10 to 5 and 6 to 2, tonight—the whipped the New York Yankees 6-3 to sweep their first two-inning completion of a suspended game—two game series. Lefty Mel Parnell held the world to put the Sox in fifth place in the American League. champions in check except for Gil McDougald's game was put off until tonight with Chicago holding three-run homer in the sixth.

The verdict kept the Red Sox in a second-place a 10-2 edge. The Browns gained three runs in the eighth frame against Harry Dorish who took the hill in place of Pierce, but the victory belonged to Billy.

Pierce went the distance in the regularly scheduled game giving up nine hits while the Sox knocked 13 safeties off starter Earl Harritt and reliever Gene Bearden.

Nelson Fox led the White Sox attack with three blows.

Hudson Stars As Nats Trim Athletics, 5-3

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP)—Sid Hudson held the Athletics to nine hits and batted across two runs today as Washington defeated Philadelphia 5-3, on a 13-hit barrage against Sam Zoldak and Johnny Kucab.

Washington scored with two out in the first inning on Jackie Jensen's double and Wilson's triple. Elmer Valo, who accounted for three of the A's hits, blasted a second inning home run over the right field fence to tie the score. Valo later singled, walked and doubled.

Successive singles by Pete Runnels, Mel Hoderlein and Clyde Kmetz loaded the bases for the Senators in the second inning but they got only one run out of it. Gus Zernial in left field.

Jensen's second double and Wilson's single boosted Washington into a 3-1 lead in the third inning. The Senators made it 4-1 in the fifth when Eddie Yost doubled and came around on Wilson's single.

The A's sliced their deficit to 4-3 in the sixth with a two-run outburst. Singles by Zernial and Billy Hitchcock, a walk to Valo and an error by Runnels figured in the uprisings.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

PARENTS whose children fail to appreciate their genius may take heart from this story of Songstress Dinah Shore's baby daughter. Every time Dinah tries to sing one of her ten-thousand dollar songs for the child, the latter begins a dreadful caterwauling, exclaiming, "Don't you sing! I want Nurse to sing for me!"

A reporter asked Orville Wright, just after the Nazis had virtually destroyed Rotterdam from the air, if he regretted having developed the airplane. "No," said Wright, "I don't. I feel about it much as I do about fire. I regret the damage it does, but am mighty glad the human race discovered it."

On the porch of Vanderschiltz Manor Mrs. Nussbaum mourned, "My boy never should have married that Davis girl. In a year she turned him into a pauper." "Really?" nodded Mrs. Gross pleasantly. "A girl or a boy?"

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R

L O N G F E L L O W

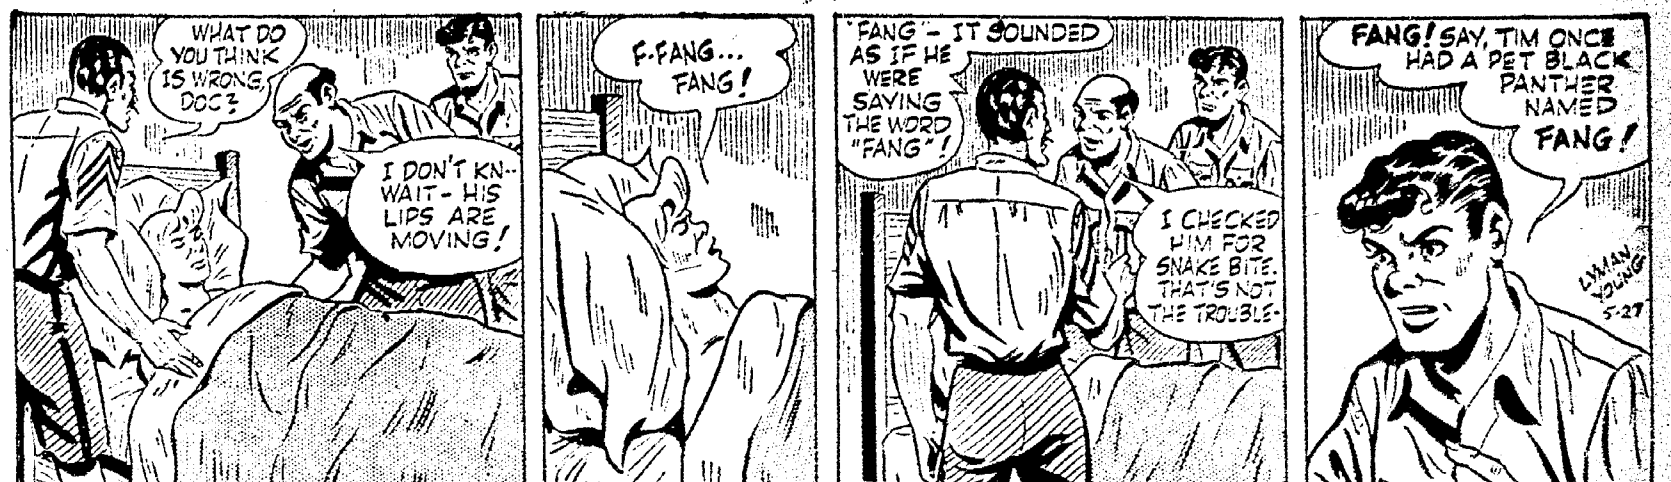

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Birthday Supper Honors Mr. Chester A. Yergey

Mr. Chester A. Yergey, Bally, was honored Sunday night at a buffet supper party held by his wife and daughters, Mrs. Alexander Gustaff, Miss Bernice Yergey and Miss Jane Yergey, to observe his birthday anniversary.

Three birthday cakes centered the buffet table, which was decorated with bouquets of mixed Spring flowers.

Guests present included: Mr. Kenneth Moatz, Mr. Daniel Schoenly, Miss Gloria Christman, Miss Joan Burkert, Miss Evelyn Miller, Mrs. Laura Brewer, Mr. Russell Brewer, Mr. Woodrow Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brewer and children; Mr. Gustaff and their son, Ronald; Mr. Clark Yergey, Mr. Richard Yergey, Miss Shirley Yergey and Miss Barbara Yergey.

Annual Banquet Is Held By Baptist Bluebird Class

The Rev. Edgar Cooper, pastor of New Hanover Lutheran church, spoke on "The High Calling of Womanhood" last night at the annual banquet of the Bluebird class of First Baptist church, held in the West End firehall.

Mrs. Conrad Miller, class president, brought greetings, as did the class teacher, Mrs. Laurence T. Beers. The Rev. Beers, pastor, led the opening group sing and also presented solo selections. Mrs. Dorothy Thalmer, a former class teacher also was a special guest.

The entertainment program featured a play, "Crosswire," directed by Mrs. Russell Cattell. In the cast were: Mrs. Douglas Ottinger, Mrs. Burton Smith, Mrs. Ronald Neiman, Mrs. Charles Watkins, Mrs. Harold Beekley, Mrs. George Mohn and Mrs. Edward Good.

Arrangements for the banquet, which was attended by 36 people, were in charge of Mrs. Lewis F. Salzer, Mrs. Edgar Strickland and Miss Violet Smith. Pianist was Mrs. Irma Miller.

Auxiliary Marching Team Banquet Held in Fire Hall

The marching team of the Ladies' auxiliary of Empire Hook and Ladder company held its third anniversary banquet last night in the firehouse.

Mrs. Yetta Benner welcomed the guests and presented a check for $150 to Mr. Richard Moser to purchase a light for the new apparatus.

Preparations and table decorations were planned by Mrs. Frances Reigner. The tables were decorated with candles and bouquets of Spring flowers.

Guests at the banquet were: Officers of the auxiliary, Mrs. Elizabeth Wagg, secretary; Mrs. Ethel Kauler, treasurer, and Mrs. Gladys Lindauer, financial secretary; officers of the fire company, Mr. Moser, company chief, and Mr. Joseph Keough, vice president; drivers of the company, Mr. Harry Yergey and Mr. Edward Hartline and a committee of the Mens' marching team.

Mrs. Keyser Conducts Meeting of Golden Agers

Mrs. Wallace Keyser, president, conducted a brief business meeting of the Golden Age club yesterday in the YWCA.

A total of 100 members were present at the meeting, when Mrs. Keyser announced that the club sessions this year will continue through the month of June.

After the business session a social was held, opened with group singing led by Mrs. Velma Biefgen. Cards and table games were played, and the meeting closed with refreshments served by members of the Business and Professional Women's club.

AUTHOR AWARDED

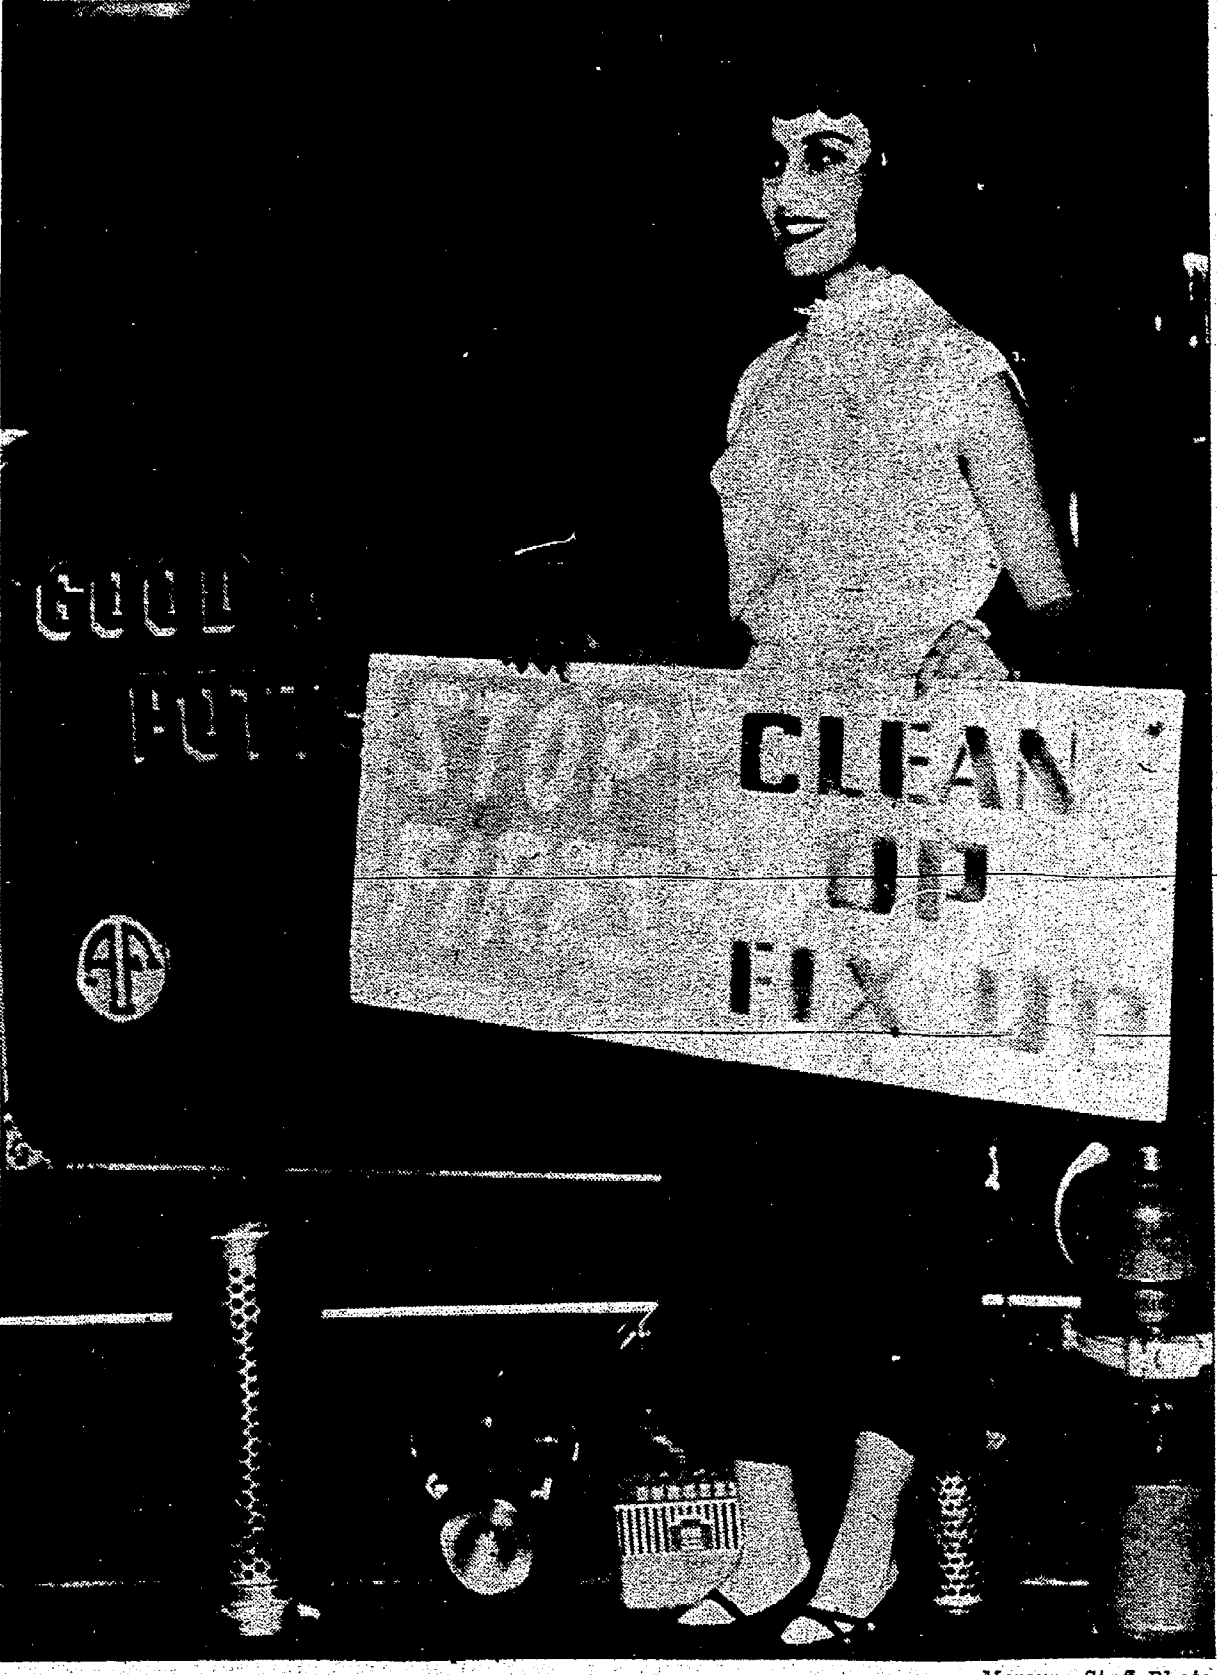

PITTSBURGH, May 26 (AP)—Rachel L. Carson, author of the best-seller, "The Sea Around Us," received an honorary doctor of literature degree today from the Pennsylvania College for Women at the college's annual "moving-up day" exercises.

Fair Warning to Clean Up

Attractive Nicoleene Gannessa, 523 Chestnut street, holds one of the signs stressing fire prevention which was displayed from the firefighting equipment of Pottstown's fire companies last night in their parade through the borough's streets as part of the Pottstown Junior Chamber of Commerce "clean-up, paint-up, fix-up week." Eight fire fighting vehicles took part in the parade which began at borough hall at 7 p. m. and spent one hour and 15 minutes traveling through the streets of Pottstown.

Fire Engine Parade Points Up Need for Clean-up Drive Here

It wasn't a big fire in Pottstown last night at 7 o'clock when fire engines were heard clanging through the borough's streets—it was a message delivered to Pottstonians by their local fire departments asking them to help prevent fires.

The motorized parade from 7 to 8:15 p. m. was sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as part of its "clean-up, paint-up, fix-up week," a campaign designed to beautify and make the borough a safer place in which to live.

Last night's parade was led by Richard E. Lindauer, borough fire chief and the three Pottstown fire companies—the Phillies with their three trucks, the Empire Hook and Ladder with their ladder truck and the Goodwill with three trucks.

The pieces of equipment were packed with arm-waving, fire fighting men in blue yelling to attract attention to the signs displayed on the trucks, asking Pottstonians to pitch in and clean up old storage spaces in order to prevent fires in the borough.

YESTERDAY WAS the first day of the Jaycees' current campaign which will last until Saturday.

Today the Jaycees expect to carry out their health and sanitation program which entails an inspection of lots, alleys and dumps. A complete survey will be made to determine the extent to which the borough should go to eliminate mosquitoes and rats.

Donald Woodley, borough garbage collector, will co-operate with the Jaycees by urging everyone to clean out garbage pails and to be certain that lids are clamped tightly on them.

One of the situations the Jaycees will try to put an end to is that of the dumping of garbage in high street waste containers. Another nuisance on High street is the shaking of mops out of second story apartments.

THE JAYCEES intend to ask the borough to cut the high grass along some of Pottstown's streets since it has been found that the grass provides a haven for rats and a breeding place for mosquitoes.

Dr. G. A. McCormick, superintendent of schools, said that this week he will stress sanitation in the borough's schools and will make thorough checks on school wash-room supplies.

As part of the safety program at the schools, more than 2000 bicycle reflectors have been distributed and those pupils who have not yet received reflectors may still obtain them at Borough hall after 4 p. m. any day this week from Desk Sgt. Irvin K. Frederick or Sgt. Harold Hahn.

Cherry Street Boy Injured in Plunge

Rodney B. Lukens, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Lukens, 1337 Cherry street, was recuperating at his home yesterday after suffering a bruised back in a fall from a porch.

Rodney and his parents were visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Lillian Lukens, 257 New street, Spring City, on Sunday when the accident occurred.

The child, who had been left alone on the porch, leaned over the railing, and somersaulted to the ground, landing on his back. Rodney's father drove him to Memorial hospital, where he was treated for shock and a bruised back.

After X-rays showed no fractures, the child was discharged yesterday morning.

Jet Bomber Crashes, Three Bodies Found

FRANKLIN, Va., May 26 (AP)—A B45 Tornado jet bomber exploded and crashed today near this little town in southeastern Virginia. The burned bodies of its three-man crew were recovered from the plane's nose section.

Langley Air Force base, from which the plane had taken off on a routine flight, reported that investigators had found no evidence that the bomber collided with another plane, as one eye-witness had said shortly after the crash.

A Langley spokesman said there were three men in the bomber, which normally carries four.

Jr. High School Band Honored at Banquet

Eighty-five members of the Pottstown Junior High school band, twirling corps, color guard and majorettes were honored by the school at a banquet in the school cafeteria last night at 6 o'clock.

Donald Kuszyk and Barbara Kalis, who previously had received gold medals as outstanding boy and girl in the band, were awarded certificates as three-year band members and later will be presented with school letters, a gold letter "P" on a purple background with the word "band" superimposed on the letter.

Other band members who have played with the band for three years were awarded certificates and also will receive letters. This is the first year that letters are being given to band members.

Boys and girls who have played with the band for their second year were given award shields to be worn on sweaters.

ONE-YEAR members of the band were awarded gold pins.

An impromptu ballot was cast at the banquet with questions to answer such as, "Who did the most for the band?"

The unanimous answer was John Hunnicutt, band president.

Other questions and answers were: "Who had the hardest job in the band?" Jack Rodgers the tuba player.

"Who was most likely to become a top-notch professional musician?" Donald Kuszyk, gold medal award winner.

"WHO HAD the easiest job in the band?" William J. Schinstine, conductor of the band and the planner of last night's festivities.

Tonight the PTA festival will be held in back of the school from 5 to 10 o'clock.

Booths will be set up to sell soft drinks, candy, French fries, ice cream and hot dogs, and the school band will play at the occasion.

The ever popular "fish pond" of prizes will be featured novelty at the festival as it has been in past years. Children will purchase tickets which will permit them to "cast" their lines into the "pond" where attendants will place gifts on the hooks.

Tomorrow night from 8 to 11 o'clock the Ninth grade pupils of the Junior High school will dance to the music of Sherwood Yergey's orchestra at their grade's annual formal prom in the school gymnasium.

THE PROM is open to Ninth grade pupils who may each bring one guest to the affair.

On Thursday the school will hold its annual athletic banquet at which time letters will be presented to the school's athletes.

Recipients of letters will have the insignia of their sports superimposed on the letter, such as, a football for the football squad, a basketball for the basketball team and a track shoe for the track team.

Friday, Memorial Day, there is no program planned because of the holiday.

Lions Club Will Honor Bi-Centennial Queen

The Pottstown bi-Centennial queen, Marty Lou Smale, and her court will be honored tonight by the Lions club of Pottstown at the club's weekly dinner meeting at the Eagles Home association at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. James I. Wendell, an eighth generation of the founder of Pottstown, John Potts, will speak on the history of Pottsgrove manor on West High street.

Rev. Eichorn to Give Talk Before Kiwanis

"To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than the material things in life" is the first article of the Kiwanis constitution, which will be the theme of the club's meeting tonight at 6:15 o'clock at the Elks Home.

John Tyson, chairman of the club's committee on the support of churches, will have charge of the program which will have as its principal speaker the Rev. George F. Eichorn, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church of South Pottstown.

The Rev. Eichorn will speak on the "Struggle for Primacy," a theme which will parallel the first article of the Kiwanis constitution and show that man "cannot serve two masters, both God and mammon, the bread of the world."

Rev. Frantz' Sons Win First Awards In Church Contest

Two members of Trinity Reformed church, the sons of the church's pastor, the Rev. John B. Frantz, won first prize awards in the stewardship essay and poster contest sponsored by the Philadelphia Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed church, Jan. 1 to March 16.

The Rev. C. Frederick Billmyer, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, Sellersville, made the announcement of the awards.

John Frantz won first prize in class D, the age group 11 to 15, for his essay on "Christian Stewardship — Anytime and Any Place" while his brother Richard Frantz took first prize in class B, the age group 18 to 24, "My Stewardship in the Church."

Both boys had previously won first prizes for their age groups in a contest sponsored for the pupils of Trinity Sunday school.

THE PRIZE winning essays will be forwarded to a committee of the commission on stewardship who will judge the essays in competition with 34 district synods of the denomination.

Mrs. John B. Frantz, the boys' mother, is chairman of the stewardship department of the women's guild of the Evangelical Reformed church.

At the same time of the synod contest, a contest of the same nature was sponsored by the Trinity Reformed church's Sunday school. Winners in their various age groups presented with cash awards were Ruth Pidcock,

De Gasperi Forces Take Lead in Rome In Early Returns

ROME, Tuesday, May 27 (AP)—Italy's Democratic government bloc was leading today in Rome's provincial election, but trailed a Neo-Fascist-Monarchist alliance in the big port provinces of Naples and Bari.

These incomplete returns may or may not reflect the outcome of simultaneous elections for the control of municipal administrations in these cities and about 2400 other municipalities in Italy. The provincial vote is being counted first. Almost all campaigning has concentrated on the municipal balloting.

The provincial voters picked administrative officials in the provinces, areas whose functions are a cross between those of U. S. states and county governments.

In the city voting, coming in more slowly, Premier Alcide de Gasperi's Christian Democratic party, with alliances constituting a centrist bloc, had won control of 132 administrations early today. The Communist and pro-Communist Socialist alliance had won 48, and the Neo-Fascist Italian Social Movement (MSI) and its monarchist allies, 5.

Neo-Fascism appears to be rising in power. In its new alliance with the monarchists, who want to restore royalty to the postwar republic, MSI polled four times as many votes in Sicily in the provincial voting as they did there in 1948.

The Communists were holding their strength, but early returns indicated the Reds had made little headway against De Gasperi's majority.

He disclosed the board wanted to hold the hearing next week, if possible, but probably will not be able to hold it so soon because of the delay involved in making the new complaints.

He said the situation has placed the board in an "embarrassing position" since it wants to carry out the mandate of the people.

M. Bernard Hoffman, Reading attorney representing Mrs. Trethewey, has requested the board to serve him with the charges as soon as possible.

Body expects to mail his request to Sager today.

LOUISE LEVENGOOD, Pottstown RD 4, won second prize of $3 for a tip on the theft of an estimated $400 from a Sanatoga home.

Third prize of $2 was won by Mrs. Betty Brown, 627 Beech street, who telephoned a tip on a man's fall from a roof so promptly that a Mercury photographer was on the scene before the badly injured man had been removed.

Mrs. Lloyd Stauffer, Worman, Douglassville RD 2, told The Mercury about an aunt, Mrs. John Climenhaga, who was to receive a master's degree at the age of 60.

Another bonus award went to W. Walter Stofflet, Pottstown RD 2. His tip was on the close call of a Pottstown man who was working under a car when the jack slipped. A safety stand prevented the man's injuries from being fatal.

ACCIDENTS

318 Chestnut street, said he'd stopped his eastbound bus to discharge several passengers opposite the bus terminal, then he swung the bus toward the terminal. Smith was the only one injured.

Norman Mauger, 9, of 659 Water street was struck by an automobile driven by Harvey D. Nester, Boyertown RD 2, yesterday afternoon at 3:41 o'clock at Cherry and Franklin streets.

Good Will ambulance drivers Edward Seeders and John Smith, in answer to an anonymous telephone call, arrived at the scene of the accident and took the boy to Memorial hospital.

DR. STANLEY NOWACKI, the consulting physician, said that a preliminary examination showed that Norman had brush burns across his chest and lacerations of his knees and left leg. Dr. Nowacki said that diagnosis of X-rays today will determine the extent of internal injuries.

Norman's sister, Carrol E. Stoudt, 6, saw the accident and ran crying to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stoudt. When the boy's parents arrived at the scene of the accident Norman had already been taken to Memorial hospital.

Nester reported to the Pottstown police in borough hall that he was going north on South Franklin street and that he saw Norman dart off the curb from the northwest corner of Franklin and Cherry streets directly into the path of his car.

A coupe driven by a Philadelphia woman was damaged yesterday afternoon when it was struck by a truck while making a turn at High and Manatwamy streets.

DOROTHY J. BARANSKY, the driver of the car, was making a left turn to Manatwamy street from the eastbound lane of High street when a truck driven by Edward D. Evans, Prospect and Willow streets, collided with her car.

Evans said he was traveling west on High street when his truck hit the coupe.

The right front fender, door and body of the car were damaged, but there was no damage to the truck. Sgt. Harold E. Hahn and Patrolman Frank Hall reported. They investigated at 4:55 o'clock.

A 1939 SEDAN driven by a woman who had neither a driver's license nor a learner's permit crashed through a stone wall on a bridge at Manatwamy street near Sell road last night at 8:30 o'clock and barely escaped plunging entirely through.

Dorothy C. Lauchner, 30, was driving a car owned by her husband, William A., 32, who was sitting in the front seat with her and her daughter, Ruthanne, 8, when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Lauchner reported to James Guadagno, West Pottsgrove police chief, that she was going north on Sell road and that she didn't know what happened. She said that she could not stop and consequently ran into the bridge.

Her husband said he turned the ignition off after the car struck the bridge and teetered on the brink of it.

THE FAMILY was treated by Dr. Abraham Bernstein, Pottstown physician, and released.

Mrs. Lauchner had a cut on the left elbow, her husband had bumps on his forehead, left knee and right side and her daughter had a cut on her right eye.

Estimated damage to the car was $200. Damage to the bridge was estimated at approximately $300.

Mrs. Lauchner will be charged with driving without an operator's license or permit, Guadagno said.

Greek burials were sometimes made in jars that were molded around the body and then baked.

U. Pottsgrove Has New Treasurer

William Federolf, a newcomer to Upper Pottsgrove school board, last night was named school district treasurer for the next year.

Federolf replaced Edward Hughes, retiring board member, who declined renomination this past Fall. Federolf is one of two new members elected to the board this past Fall. The other was Robert John.

The board scheduled a brief budget adjusting session for tonight.

John B. Ferdinand, supervising principal, reported the free school picnic will be conducted for children at Sessel park, on June 2. Pop and hot dogs will be served.

He reported there were only six children who were reported to have bad hearing after a hearing aid test given at the school during the past month.

Present at the session in the school along Route 100 were Federolf, John, John Fidler Sr., Thomas R. Henry and Harry Overholtzer.

EQUALIZATION

panies are specialists in the reassessment, and should be able to explain the advantages derived by boroughs who have had reassessment.

CARL M. BINDER, of the school board, pointed out the school district will benefit more by any changes in assessment than the borough. The school board levies a 27 mill property tax and the borough a 15-mill real estate tax.

Binder said he didn't know how much of the cost of the program the school district legally can pay. Gustav H. Schade Jr., Ninth ward councilman, asked the committee, "Do you all feel we should get a firm which will do the entire job instead of a proposition offered by the University of Pennsylvania?"

The committee members agreed an outside organization of experts should be hired to do the job. It was pointed out an outside group could do a better and more equitable job.

Schade said he agreed an outside organization could do a better job. He pointed out the job should be done thoroughly.

BINDER ADDED, "That's right. It should be done right or forgotten about."

Schade pointed out, "We still have the problem of the school board."

Binder said, "Representatives of the companies interested in the job may throw light on what the school districts in other boroughs have contributed to reassessment programs." He added the financial contribution of the school district should be referred to the school solicitor, Harold E. Binder.

Burgess William A. Griffith recommended a representative of the Montgomery county board of assessment be invited to the June 6 session.

Lord declared, "I think that's a good suggestion, Burgess." The committee voted to extend an invitation to a member of the county board.

The committee chairman pointed out the need for reassessment. He said the borough is not necessarily after more money and explained the many false impressions the public has about the reassessment.

HE SAID some homes will be reassessed at higher values, some will stay the same and some will be decreased.

Lord explained the difference in the present system and the new system. He said currently a property is assessed at a certain value and the millage is applied to that figure.

Under the modern assessments the true value of all properties are fixed. The true values are made up from cards which include the physical characteristics of all properties.

The cards are kept in the office of a single tax assessor. Horace Y. Seidel was recently named single tax assessor for the borough.

The modern plans call for flexible factor—a relatively adjustment for different sections of a town or city.

IT WAS pointed out the school board might be expected to pay more than half the cost of the reassessment, because it will derive the greatest benefit, however, the money for the program will come from the same source, the public.

Lord said of the borough finds the revenue to be derived from reassessment will be much greater than the money taken in under the present system, then the millage rate can be decreased.

He pointed a modest increase might pay off the cost of assessment in several years.

The chairman said the true value of real estate in Pottstown is set at $18,000,000. "If that figure is increased," Lord said, "then the borough will have a much greater borrowing capacity and we can borrow for streets we so badly need without referring the issue to the public."

He said school board also would benefit from a reassessment because the State appropriation would be increased.

The tax will go into effect June 15 and will be collected by Michael Petrick, who will become school board secretary in July.

Sadie Richard Dies In Home of Sister

Sadie E. (Miller) Richard, aged 78, widow of Milton H. Richard, died suddenly last night at the home of her sister, Ellen, wife of Samuel Kinckiner, 958 Queen street.

Mrs. Richard had been in ill health for the past several years. Born in Chester county, she was the daughter of the late John and Barbara (Mouar) Miller. She was a school teacher for 15 years in the Kenilworth schools, and lived for 36 years at 94 Keim street.

A charter member of St. James Lutheran church, the deceased was a member of the Ladies' Aid society and the Missionary society of the church.

She is survived by two step-daughters, Mary, wife of Frederick Will, Reading; and Senorah, wife of Harold Rooney, Royersford; two sisters, Ellen, with whom she resided; and Emma M. John, 1238 Queen street; one brother, William C., Glenside.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from a funeral home at 339 King street. Officiating will be the Rev. Edward S. Horn, pastor of St. James Lutheran church.

Interment will be made in Mt. Zion cemetery.

Praises Move to Clean up Trash in Books

Pleads for Education

To the Editor: I saw in The Mercury the other day that some Congressmen are going to probe filth and other cheap trash that is appearing more and more on TV and in books.

I back their movement wholeheartedly and hope it isn't allowed to die out. Every day you can pick up a newspaper and see how a youngster set while making a robbery attempt or how peace might have been achieved but for the lack of properly educating the people.

With all the millions of dollars wasted each year on these utterly ridiculous TV programs or cheap, bawdy novels filled with filthy words, you might think some small part of it at least could be put into educational channels so that the wayward youth and morally uneducated readers might better learn how to live.

But no, it appears the American society is geared to a fast-moving, gadget-loving, non-spiritual level.

Pottstown "BACK-SEATER"

Calls for UMT

To the Editor: One of the best arguments for universal military training is the case of the 12th Air Force officers, who refused to fly.

These men, most of whom were called back to the service, can hardly be blamed for their action when they see their former comrades in arms at home—safe and sound—making lots of money.

If this country is to be truly democratic, everyone should be called upon to serve. No one should be penalized by having to serve against his will when there are others who have not served and who will not serve.

When everyone is in the same position, there will be no need for anyone to refuse.

Pottstown FAIR-MINDED

Praises Teacher

To the Editor: I'm not a teacher, but I think Marian Giles is off to a good start as head of the teachers association when she comes out for more co-operation between the local group and State and Federal teachers' groups.

After all, people in Pottstown—teachers as well as everyone else, can learn something from others living in different parts of the country.

The more contacts teachers have with the "outside world," the more modern and knowing they can be in their classrooms, in their relations among themselves and with their bosses, the school directors.

Pottstown PRO-TEACHER

Armed Forces Discrimination

To the Editor: In regard to our Negro GIs who are made to taste the bitter cup of segregation, I should like to quote John 10:16: "And there shall be one fold and one shepherd."

Nothing there, or anywhere in Jesus' teachings, says, "One fold for whites and one for colored."

The fight against discrimination should start in each individual's heart.

That's where the true black or white is found.

Not until each individual, colored or white, searches his own heart and gets his own mind straightened out can there be race and creed unity.

I use the word "unity" because I don't like "toleration." Toleration means "putting up with it" to most of us. That is still discrimination, only in a milder form.

The Voice of Broadway

JOHN WAYNE AND his esperanza are heading for headlines again. The nation's top male box office draw tried for a reconciliation at his studio's urging, but it isn't working out. . . . Red Skelton, already warned by doctors, is in such a state of exhaustion he takes oxygen between scenes of his TV show. . . . That battle between Kirk Douglas and Tyrone Power was based on a rib that went too far. (Ty would really rather not hear any more cracks about that statue of Linda!) The Barbara Payton snapshots currently circulating in Hollywood are The Absolute End. Nothing like them has come out of the movie colony in years. . . . Columnist Frank Condit and his bride, the beautiful Elizabeth Murray, will lullaby in January, 1953. . . . Business at Hutton's has jumped 40 per cent since Laraine Day became the restaurant's disc jockey.

JOHNNY MEYERS, accused by national magazine of "crashing" a swank Washington soiree, comes off rather well in Ethel Merman's low-down on the situation in a letter from the Capitol: "It didn't happen at my party which Bob Six gave me after the opening, it took place the following evening at a party at the home of Mrs. Dwight Davis. Meyers went with me and a group in my car, and during the evening, while seated at tables in a very beautiful garden, Mr. Secretary of State joined us for about an hour and a half's conversation."

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

HOWARD P., 43, is an insurance executive.

"Dr. Crane, he has been the most wonderful husband," his wife informed me. "But a few weeks ago he suddenly told me he didn't love me any more."

"He says he is infatuated with a 22-year-old stenographer at the office."

"It started when I was visiting my parents over the week-end about a month ago. Howard took this girl home and told her he loved her."

"He never even jessed her! But ever since then he has been going around in a fog."

"He doesn't seem to know what he does want. I was angry and hurt and offered him a divorce. He refused."

"Now he says I am ashamed of him, so he stays away from church, though he has been most active therein. Last night he suggested that we get twin beds. Should I do so, Dr. Crane?"

HOWARD IS A menopausal male. He has been married for 20 years, and his sexual ardor is not as great now as it was the first year of marriage.

That is not unusual, for the edge of our appetites may be slightly dulled as we grow older.

But, like most other men, Howard begins to grow panicky. He is afraid of premature old age.

For several years he has vaguely been conscious of this reduction in his ardor toward his wife.

Soon after marriage, husband and wife become pleasantly adjusted on an affectionate plane that is often not very different from that of a fond brother and sister.

Only when they visit a romantic movie occasionally do they again resurrect the additional ardor that changes them back into a "sweetheart" couple.

If the skull were only made of glass and a man's thoughts were thus transparent to his wife, she could avoid most of the quarrels and pitfalls of marriage.

But all the wife sees may be a few symptoms of a deep seated conflict. She must become a psychological detective, therefore, and learn how to get to the core of the trouble, else she will waste valuable time.

On his wedding day, a husband's ardor is probably in a 3:1 ratio with his wife's.

But it may drop to a 1:1 ratio after 40. This reduction is so obvious it frightens the average male.

In order to prevent this disastrous result, the intelligent wife must consciously change from her normal passive role and gradually become more aggressive.

Korean Breather...

4 in His Life...

★ HOME — Pottstown's Robert J. Schneck, who's a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Navy, was home from Korea, where he was acting as a chaplain. Commander Schneck returned Saturday morning, one day before his 33d birthday, to continue his duty at Camp Lejeune, N. C. He has been stationed at the Marine camp since Feb. 23, three weeks after returning from seven months' duty with the Marines in Korea. The three weeks he spent with his wife and children, Robert J. Jr., 6, Ellen Marie, 3, and Andrew E., 1. He took his family to North Carolina about March 10, then brought it north with him the past Wednesday on his way to the Ministerium Association of Pennsylvania convention in Buck Hill Falls. He dropped the children off at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Schneck, 961 High street. . . .

MRS. SCHNECK said her son said little about Korea, except that the natives of the country are poorly fed. Commander Schneck enlisted in the Navy in 1943, immediately after his ordination as a Lutheran minister, and has been in that branch of the service ever since.

★ FOURS FOR HIM—A sidelight on the life of the Rev. William M. Begley, rector of St. Aloysius Catholic church, who as a recent Mercury news-story noted, will observe the golden jubilee of his ordination June 15, is the way 4's keep recurring these days. He came to Pottstown four years ago after having a pastorate in Summit Hill for four days less than four years. St. Aloysius parish will observe its centenary four year from now, and on the fourth day of this week, Father Begley will observe his 54th birthday.

PLAGUE—Mrs. Emerson Fisher, Monocacy Station, is plagued with a swarm of honeybees in a second floor bedroom of her home. The bees arrived about three weeks ago and the family hasn't been able to get rid of them. The Fishers have closed off the room, but the bees seem to like it there. The family is especially perturbed since the bedroom is a choice spot, with a large bay window.

★ FACTS—Of the diamonds produced in the Belgian Congo, the world's largest source, only about two percent are suitable for gems. All others go into varied industrial uses. The yield of Tanganika's mines is 80 percent gem-quality stones. . . . Slanted by the swift current flowing east through the Straits of Florida, sea level on the north coast of Cuba is about 17 inches higher than at Key West. YOUR HEALTH

By HERMANN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

A new industrial metal, beryllium, can cause sudden and severe diseases of the skin, lungs, or entire body. Disorders can develop years after a person has worked with the metal.

Beryllium is a structural metal that is lighter than aluminum. It is also used for fluorescent lights and other industrial purposes.

Workers in plants where the metal is extracted from its ore find that their skin breaks out badly, usually one to two weeks after exposure. They usually recover about a week after they stop working with the ore. Others develop severe skin ulcers that are hard to heal and may have to be removed by surgery.

More serious and common is a poisoning of the lungs and breathing passages, leading to a form of pneumonia. Workers then have severe coughing and shortness of breath, and there are changes in the lung that can be seen with X-rays. This can be a severe infection—one out of eight patients dies.

Many times the lung poisoning appears ten years or more after a person has stopped working with beryllium. He begins to complain of severe cough, shortness of breath, poor appetite, and loss of weight. As time goes on, his condition becomes worse. These people also have a greater tendency toward kidney stones and liver disorders.

When there is suspicion of beryllium poisoning, an X-ray examination usually helps the doctor make an exact diagnosis. There are also tests to find out if the metal is in the urine or body tissues.

Many forms of treatment have been attempted, but without much success. Recently, some patients have been helped with the new drugs ACTH and cortisone, and there is some hope that these drugs can relieve severe beryllium poisoning.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

H. R.: What causes me to have excessive gas in my stomach and intestines?

Answer: The formation of large amounts of gas in the bowel may be due to a number of causes, one of the most common being gall-bladder infection. However, when this type of infection is present, there are other symptoms, such as nausea, pain, and, sometimes vomiting. Constipation is also a cause. Eating foods which contain too much starch and sweets might result in the formation of a great deal of gas.

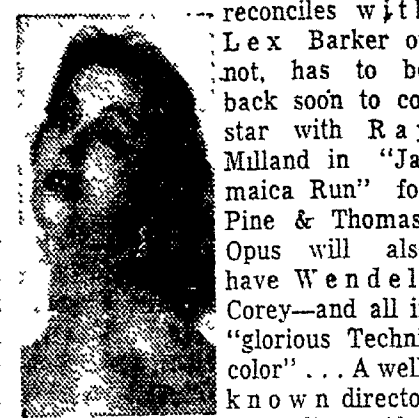

An examination should be made to determine the cause of the trouble; then steps can be taken to eliminate it. Individuals who eat too fast, or who are nervous, frequently swallow a great deal of air with their food. This air accumulates and pressure results. One should eat slowly, and the food should be well chewed at all times.

Pamphlets Are Distributed to Bird Club; Ohio Check Is Received for Birdhouses

By Janice Meeker
AUDUBON CLUB NEWS
The Fifth and Sixth grade Audubon club meeting was called to order by our president, Kenneth Stauffer.
Robert Townsley volunteered to bring a measuring cup to measure the feed before we put it into the bird feeders.
Barbara Geiser and Binnie Tisher distributed some pamphlets to members of the Bird club called "Attracting Birds." In the pamphlets it tells about "Caring for Birds in the Winter," "Care of Bird Houses" and it shows how to make bird houses.
We received the check from Wapakoneta, Ohio, for the bird houses that Philip Pollino and Kenneth Stauffer made. Two dollars of the money is going into the treasury for next year's bird feed.

CLARK HUGHES and Kenneth Stauffer finished the two bird houses for Sandra John's neighbor. Pearl Rhoades and Richard Spare gave reports about the evening grosbeak.
From the reports, we learned they make their nest 15 feet to 50 feet in a conifer tree. The nest is shaped like a saucer.
We also learned they make their nest of small twigs, grass rootlets and bark strips. It is lined with fine rootlets or horsehair.
They told us the evening grosbeak lays three to four eggs and are clear green, blotched with pale brown spots. They are often called the "sugar bird" and "American hawfinch."

THE LENGTH of the evening grosbeak is 8 1/2 inches. The wings are mostly of the bird are nearly the length of his tail. The males are yellow.

Annual Field Day And Picnic to Take Place at Sussel Park

By SANDRA JOHN
Mr. Ferdinand, our school principal, has informed us that our annual school picnic and field day will be held this year on June 2 at Sussel park.
Every child in our school will have the pleasure of roasting a hot dog. A committee of Sixth grade boys are now securing sticks on which the doggies will be roasted. Kenneth Stauffer is acting as chairman.
Races and field events will be held under the direction of our principal and teachers. Entertainment also is going to be provided by children from all the grades of our school. Parents and all pre-school age children are invited to attend.
In Mrs. Warner's First grade, the children made a folder for their weekly readers. They used different colored construction paper. Carl Metzger returned to school after recovering from a bad case of poison ivy.

THE CHILDREN of the Second and Third grades recently watched a program on television. It showed the development of "The Three Times Table" and the relationship involved.

The children in the Third and Fourth grades have enjoyed listening to the program every Monday on their radio, entitled "The Trip to the Zoo." It has now been discontinued until next school term.
Raymond Yost, a member of the Fourth grade, will celebrate his birthday on Friday.
Susan McDonnell, the captain of our patrol has been absent from school with a leg infection.
The last visit of the Montgomery county free bookmobile will be Wednesday. The children and teachers of our school are appreciative of the hundreds of books that were made available to our school this term through this service.

Clover was first introduced into England as a farm crop about the middle of the 17th Century.
